Walter Shocker Counterattack:

Walter Shocker Counterattack Maikya Shitalotte, 2005-06-01 According to Walt's 8th grade teacher he's about as bright as a match in the desert at noon but far fatter. He won't stop trying though because he wants to change his bland life and get ahead as an investigative reporter. Sure he got kidnapped on his first assignment but hey it saved his life from a biological attack that wasted a city of six million. But this got Walt thinking. Who was behind this attack? Could this be the story that will change his life? Are barbecue flavored chips better than plain ones? So off he went searching for weapons of mass destructions and bumping into an assortment of criminals and philosophers, eccentrics and misfits. Victor Berger a renegade CIA operative was on the run from his former employer. Is the CIA following a pattern of radical provocations that will assure an attack on the US? Or are they just planning an old fashioned coup d'etat? It's awfully hard for a Russian general like Mickey Budenny to make a living these days. But could applying mass marketing techniques to bio weapon spray equipment be the ticket to a lucrative new career? Pakistani professor Mohammed Jinnah has a lot to say about propaganda in the US. But Walt isn't so sure. I think brainwashing is a bad idea. Wouldn't water washing or even dry cleaning be better? I mean wouldn't it get the clothes all bloody and slimy? Walt's old buddy from the army is now a drop out in the back woods of Massachusetts. He wants self improvement by seeking anarchy. But even if he finds one, Walt wonders how can a furry rodent help him? Will bio weapons kill millions of Americans? Will the Terrorist War destroy personal liberties in the US? Don't ask Walt. He's clueless.
