The Flexible Firm Julian Birkinshaw, Peter Hagström, 2000-03-16 The pace of change in the business world is becoming faster This book provides a detailed account of the network like organization forms that some firms are adopting to make themselves more flexible and responsive to changing technologies and customer demands As these organizations become more pervasive the winners will be those firms that develop the specific capabilities that are needed to thrive in a networked world Paradoxically such capabilities are developed not only at the firm level but also in the relationships the firm has with its external network and in the operating units within the firm This perspective has implications for the resource based view of the firm in the field of strategic management suggesting that the development of capabilities is a more complex and multi level process than was traditionally thought This book brings together eleven chapters each focusing on a particular aspect of capability development in the networked firm It is based on research in five big Swedish firms Ericsson Volvo Skandia Pharmacia Upjohn SE Banken as well as a number of other well known firms such as HP and ABB The book will be essential reading for advanced students in strategy and international business wanting to keep abreast of current thinking and company practices

Cultural Strategies of Agenda Denial Roger W. Cobb, Marc Howard Ross, 1997 This is the first book devoted to examining why some issues proposed by aggrieved individuals or groups are denied access to policy agendas The book contains case studies that look at the policy process from the perspective of the strategies opponents often use to ensure agenda denial strategies usually motivated by perceived threats to widely held world views and identities

The Politics of Plant Closings John Portz, 1990 A paper reprint of the 1988 original It is a political history that describes and analyzes the management of organized knowledge Wheatley takes Flexner and the Carnegie Foundation of 1910 as the model Portz political science Northeastern U combines a synthesis of the literature on urban politics and political economy with a close analysis of plant closings in Pittsburgh Pennsylvania Louisville Kentucky and Waterloo Iowa to illuminate the complexity of constraints upon and range of local government efforts to control the economic damage caused by shutdowns Paper edition unseen 12 95 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR
