This Way To The Apocalypse:

This Way to the Apocalypse Sydney Bernard, 1969 Sounds Like Helicopters Matthew Lau, 2019-10-01 Classical music masterworks have long played a key supporting role in the movies silent films were often accompanied by a pianist or even a full orchestra playing classical or theatrical repertory music yet the complexity of this role has thus far been underappreciated Sounds Like Helicopters corrects this oversight through close interpretations of classical music works in key modernist films by Francis Ford Coppola Werner Herzog Luis Buñuel Stanley Kubrick Jean Luc Godard Michael Haneke and Terrence Malick Beginning with the famous example of Wagner's Ride of the Valkyries in Apocalypse Now Matthew Lau demonstrates that there is a significant continuity between classical music and modernist cinema that belies their seemingly ironic juxtaposition Though often regarded as a stuffy conservative art form classical music has a venerable avant garde tradition and key films by important directors show that modernist cinema restores the original subversive energy of these classical masterworks These films Lau argues remind us of what this music sounded like when it was still new and difficult they remind us that great music remains new music The pattern of reliance on classical music by modernist directors suggests it is not enough to watch modernist cinema one must listen to its music to sense its prehistory its history and its obscure prophetic future The Doctrine of the Ministry Revere Franklin Weidner, 1907 Cyber Security and the Politics of Time Tim Stevens, 2016 Explores how security communities think about time and how this shapes the politics of security in the information age The End All Around Us John Walliss, Kenneth G. C. Newport, 2014-12-05 The Apocalypse or end times are a recurrent theme within contemporary popular culture The End All Around Us presents a wide ranging exploration of the influence of the apocalypse within art literature music and film The essays draw on representations of the apocalypse in heavy metal music science fiction disaster movies and anime The book examines key apocalyptic texts focusing on their relevance to today It will be invaluable to all those interested in the religious and cultural impact of apocalyptic thought Dictionary of the Apostolic Church James Hastings, John Alexander Selbie, John Chisholm Lambert, 1919 Monstrous Nature Robin L. Murray, Joseph K. Heumann, 2016 Godzilla a traditional natural monster and representation of cinema's subgenre of natural attack also provides a cautionary symbol of the dangerous consequences of mistreating the natural world monstrous nature on the attack Horror films such as Godzilla invite an exploration of the complexities of a monstrous nature that humanity both creates and embodies Robin L. Murray and Joseph K. Heumann demonstrate how the horror film and its offshoots can often be understood in relation to a monstrous nature that has evolved either deliberately or by accident and that generates fear in humanity as both character and audience This connection between fear and the natural world opens up possibilities for ecocritical readings often missing from research on monstrous nature the environment and the horror film Organized in relation to four recurring environmental themes in films that construct nature as a monster anthropomorphism human ecology evolution and gendered landscapes the authors apply ecocritical perspectives to reveal the multiple ways nature is constructed as monstrous or in which the natural world itself constructs monsters This interdisciplinary approach to film studies fuses cultural theological and scientific critiques to explore when and why nature becomes monstrous The Theology of the Book of Revelation Richard Bauckham,1993-03-04 The Book of Revelation is a work of profound theology But its literary form makes it impenetrable to many modern readers and open to all kinds of misinterpretations Richard Bauckham explains how the book s imagery conveyed meaning in its original context and how the book s theology is inseparable from its literary structure and composition Revelation is seen to offer not an esoteric and encoded forecast of historical events but rather a theocentric vision of the coming of God s universal kingdom contextualised in the late first century world dominated by Roman power and ideology It calls on Christians to confront the political idolatries of the time and to participate in God s purpose of gathering all the nations into his kingdom Once Revelation is properly grounded in its original context it is seen to transcend that context and speak to the contemporary church This study concludes by highlighting Revelation s continuing relevance for today The Role of the Spirit in the Eschatological Ethics of Revelation Pandelani Paul Mbedzi,2015-06-24 The role of the spirit in the eschatological ethics of revelation was a topic that has given me great joy to learn the book of Revelation the role of the spirit eschatological and ethics In this book I have discovered the plan of salvation which was laid before the foundation of the world in a very clear manner God the master of the universe revealed to John the final story of this worlds history at the Isles of Patmos The trinity is well explained and even their duties as the Godhead God the Father God the Son and God the Holy Ghost of which my dissertation is looking at the office or the role of the spirit in the second coming of Christ From Genesis to Malachi it is God the Father who revealed himself to mankind and from Matthew to Acts 1 8 it is God the Son who came in person to reveal God the Father and from Acts 1 9 to Revelation it is God the Holy Spirit who will teach us all that God the son could not finish teaching us The script is divided into five chapters which are the orientation into the book of Revelation the theology and the ethics of the book Revelation the eschatology ethics in Revelation the Holy Spirit in Revelation and the role of the spirit and eschatology ethics of Revelation which is the theme of this script Then we have the conclusion of the script Journal of Theological Studies ,1916 This Way to the Apocalypse Sidney Bernard,1969-06-01 An Introduction to the Study of the New Testament, Critical, Exegetical, and Theological Samuel Davidson,1894 Popular Lectures on the Books of the New Testament Augustus Hopkins Strong,1914 Church History Johann Heinrich Kurtz,John Macpherson,1891 Church History:) Attempts at regeneration in Germany Johann Heinrich Kurtz,1889 The Jewish Encyclopedia Isidore Singer,1901 Chapters I-IV Emanuel Swedenborg,1911 Notes, explanatory and practical, on the New Testament. ed. by R. Frew Albert Barnes,1884 Salvation ,1899 Holy Terror Eric S. Christianson,Christopher Partridge,2016-04-08 The authors of religious scriptures had little difficulty enhancing sacred narratives with the rhetoric of violence The phenomenon continues in the habitual linkage of violence and religion in contemporary film music and literature Holy Terror brings together scholars of religious studies biblical studies film studies and sociology to examine the social function of violence in popular discourse The book questions how violent rhetoric shapes belief and values how audience empathy with violent protagonists can be understood and the significance of the association of violence with particular religious groups and ideas A range of phenomena are analysed including terrorism in Scripture apocalyptic texts in film and violence in sport
