Where Crows Men Collide:

Where Crows & Men Collide Kate Gale, 1995 Where Crows and Men Collide Kate Gale, 2014 Banjo Grease Dennis Must, 2019-11-19 The author of Brother Carnival and The World's Smallest Bible examines small town life in this collection of sixteen stories There is an inexplicable gravity in a small town It can be read and enjoyed like a favorite book for most of its inhabitants Comforting are its streets and institutions its wedding and obituary announcements Banjo Grease is about life and death in a mill town where at each epiphany and rite of passage the narrator yields a ration of innocence Characters portray class as a marker as strong as race and gender and distrust that they will ever escape in their lifetimes Faulkner uses the term eager fatalism These stories cumulative effect asks When exchanging naiveté for worldliness what is lost in denying one's past These stories float through the reader like frozen images Each one fits into the others unevenly as jagged glass This is the essence of great fiction at the end of the century Ray Carver and Thom Jones plowed into some stupendous force that whips along with a tilted wild energy Kate Gale author of The Goldilocks Zone Dennis Must's first collection of short stories is no ordinary debut but the mature work of a fully accomplished literary artist Moreover his originality his deep irreverence and his compassion for working class men and women Strivers and seekers of dreams signal him as an inspired author in a new American grain a visionary poet and realist Tom Jenks cofounder and editor Narrative Magazine Dennis Must's stunning collection Banjo Grease is just what one hopes for a series of intriguing interlocking stories whose cumulative force goes beyond the sum of its parts Geoffrey Clark author of Two Two Lily White Boys The Sun Dance of the Crow Indians Robert Harry Lowie, 1915 The Geography of Morals Owen J. Flanagan, 2017 Variations On being imprisoned by one's upbringing Moral psychologies and moral ecologies Bibliographical essay First nature Classical Chinese sprouts Modern moral psychology Beyond moral modularity Destructive emotions Bibliographic essay Collisions When values collide Moral geographies of anger Weird anger For love's and justice's sake Bibliographical essay Anthropologies Self variations philosophical archaeologies The content of character Mating Season Kate Gale, 2004 This is Kate Gale's fifth book of poetry Known for her gutsy sensual dark and glittery poems this is work about the world as it is hard cold asking you for your money and then shooting you anyway One of a new breed of very successful edgy poets Gale is unwilling to soft soap the way the world works These poems are tingling raw and clouded with sadness Kate Gale has a doctorate in English literature from Claremont and is managing editor of Red Hen Press In addition to poetry she has published one children's book a novel and is the editor of four anthologies She lives and writes in Los Angeles California

Ghosts in the Classroom Michael Dubson, 2001 Adjunct faculty have become a permanent fixture in the staffing of higher education courses Approximately 50% of all college courses are taught by adjunct faculty College administrators expect exemplary professional performance from these teachers But the low pay the lack of job security and the lack of professional support shows that these faculty are certainly not treated as professionals Who are the people who become and remain adjunct faculty Why do they do it What do they hope to achieve How does the way they are treated affect their lives And the work they are hired to do Why have the colleges allowed themselves to be dependent upon adjunct faculty What are the short and long term effects on the students who find themselves in the classrooms of adjunct faculty These questions will be answered by the essays in this book all of which were written by adjunct faculty whose lives were forever altered by their
