Strategy Defence Australian Essays:

Strategy & Defence Desmond Ball, 1982-01-01      Quarterly Essay 13 Sending Them Home Robert Manne, David Corlett, 2003-12-01 In the first Quarterly Essay of 2004 Robert Manne tells the stories of individual asylum seekers and finds in their experience the seeds of a devastating critique Balancing sorrow and pity with a controlled anger Manne develops a sustained argument about what could and should be done for the nine thousand refugees who remain in limbo on temporary protection visas Sending Them Home also contains a groundbreaking account of conditions in the offshore processing camps on Nauru whose operations have until now been shrouded in secrecy and a damning forensic investigation of the recent efforts to return frequently against their will many of those who sought our protection and whose countries remain in turmoil Combining ethical reflection and acute political analysis this essay initiates a new phase in the refugee debate No one ought to pretend that the unanticipated arrival of the Iraqis Afghans and Iranians did not pose real problems for Australia However these problems arose not because these people were not genuine refugees They arose rather precisely because the overwhelming majority of them were Robert Manne Sending Them Home      Geography, Power, Strategy and Defence Policy Desmond Ball, Sheryn Lee, 2016-05-18 Paul Dibb AM has had an extraordinary career He enjoys an international scholarly reputation of the highest order while at the same time he has done much distinguished public service He was a pioneer in moving back and forth between posts in government departments notably the Department of Defence and academia He began as a student of Soviet economic geography and then spent nearly two decades in Australian Defence intelligence including service as Head of the National Assessments Staff NAS in the Joint Intelligence Organisation JIO from 1974 to 1978 Deputy Director of JIO in 1978 80 Director of JIO in 1986 88 and Deputy Secretary of Defence Strategy and Intelligence in 1988 91 before becoming a Professor in the Strategic and Defence Studies Centre SDSC at The Australian National University where he is now an Emeritus Professor He has been quite happy to engage in vigorous public debate about important and controversial strategic and defence issues giving him a high public profile The contributors include two former Chancellors of ANU one a former Minister of Defence and the other a former Secretary of the Department of Defence a former Chief of the Defence Force CDF and other former senior officials as well as academic specialists in geography international relations and strategic and defence studies This would be a high quality set of essays for any edited volume but for a festschrift a genre that sometimes generates uneven collections this is an exceptional assembly The individual pieces are very good together they have coherence and power Professor Ian Hall Professor of International Relations Griffith University      The Routledge Handbook of Civil-Military Relations Florina Cristiana Matei, Carolyn Halladay, Thomas C. Bruneau, 2021-11-01 This second edition of The Routledge Handbook of Civil Military Relations offers a wide ranging internationally focused overview of the field of civil military relations The armed forces are central actors in most societies and are involved in many different roles Amongst other activities they engage in peace operations support the police in fighting crime support civilian authorities in dealing with natural disasters and fight against terrorists and in internal conflicts The existing literature on this subject is limited in its discussion of warfighting and thus does not do justice to the variety of roles This second edition not only fills this important lacuna but offers an up to date comparative analysis and provides a conceptual framework to analyze how strategies can realistically be implemented Amalgamating ideas from key thinkers in the field the book is organized into three main thematic parts Part I Civil Military Relations in Non Democratic States and Illiberal Democracies Part II Civil Military Relations in New Democracies Part III Civil Military Relations in Established Democracies This handbook will be essential reading for students and practitioners in the fields of civil military relations defense studies war and conflict studies international security and IR in general

Quarterly Essay 14 Mission Impossible Paul McGeough, 2004-06-01 In the second Quarterly Essay of 2004 Paul McGeough offers a dramatic account of why Iraq remains in chaos despite desperate American efforts to create a model democracy in the Middle East According to McGeough Iraq to this day remains a tribal society It cannot be governed without the cooperation of the true powers in the land the tribal and religious sheikhs Those who have ruled Iraq in the past including Saddam Hussein and the British before him understood this fact The Americans by contrast seem to have missed the point In Mission Impossible Paul McGeough enters the world of key Iraqi tribal and religious leaders There are vivid portraits of the sheikhs role in the fall and capture of Saddam as well as their part in the growing insurgency There are glimpses too of a history that once involved Lawrence of Arabia and Gertrude Bell and which pre dates Islam stretching back thousands of years Combining reportage and analysis in brilliant fashion this groundbreaking essay is well timed to coincide with the next major phase in Iraq s troubled history Throughout the history of their region the sheikhs have been the powerbrokers deciding who would reign between the great rivers the Tigris and the Euphrates Paul McGeough Mission Impossible
