A Taste of Kenyan Cooking Karimbux, Adil, 2007-06-07 From a young age the author was a constant presence in the family kitchen watching and helping the cook But neither the female cook nor his father thought it natural that a young boy should take an interest in this woman's work But his passion continued and became his profession He has worked at well known establishments in Kenya France and the Netherlands His first cookery collection is aimed at people with an appreciation of fine food and wanting to produce it in their own homes Thoroughly accessible and mindful of tight budgets the recipes use local and international ingredients and cover many well known meat fish and vegetable dishes

Student Encyclopedia of African Literature Douglas Killam, Alicia L. Kerfoot, 2007-12-30 African literature is a vast subject of growing output and interest Written especially for students this book selectively surveys the topic in a clear and accessible way Included are roughly 600 alphabetically arranged entries on writers genres and major works Many entries cite works for further reading and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography Africa is a land of contrasts and of diverse cultures and traditions It is also a land of conflict and creativity The literature of the continent draws upon a fascinating body of oral traditions and lore and also reflects the political turmoil of the modern world With the increased interest in cultural diversity and the growing centrality of Africa in world politics African literature is figuring more and more prominently in the curriculum This book helps students learn about the African literary achievement Written expressly for students this book is far more accessible than other reference works on the subject Included are nearly 600 alphabetically arranged entries on authors such as Chinua Achebe Athol Fugard Buchi Emecheta Nadine Gordimer and Wole Soyinka major works such as Things Fall Apart and Petals of Blood and individual genres such as the novel drama and poetry Many entries cite works for further reading and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography

Historical Dictionary of Women in Sub-Saharan Africa Kathleen Sheldon, 2005-03-16 This vast dictionary launches the new series

Historical Dictionaries of Women in the World and fills a huge gap in the literature as there previously has not been any comprehensive reference work on African women This dictionary includes over 660 entries on notable women in history politics religion the arts and other sectors on events particularly associated with women on women s organizations and publications and on a range of topics that are important to women in general or that have a special importance for African women including marriage fertility market women goddesses and much more Entries include cross referencing information that facilitates readers ability to find related information The book also includes an introductory essay and a chronology on African women s history as well as an extensive bibliography divided into sub sections on different historical eras and subjects Access to finding specific information is further aided by a country index A wide range of users will find this reference extremely valuable including researchers in African or women s history high school and university students and people involved with African policy and development issues such as diplomats or aid workers

Culinary Creation James LeRoy Morgan,2006 The book seeks not to present a detailed history and discussion but instead is intended to provide the student with an appreciation of the idea that all cuisines of the world have something unique to offer to a menu The author strongly believes that foods of other nations and even other areas of the United States are too often given short shrift by culture bound students and chefs and that every attempt should be made to open their minds to the unlimited possibilities available The word foodism is introduced to refer to biases against foods outside your culture
