The Irrational Knot:

The Irrational Knot Bernard Shaw, 1914 Marriage as the knot in question is exemplified by the union of Marian Lind a lady of the upper class to Edward Conolly always a workman but now a magnate thanks to his invention of an electric motor that makes steam engines obsolete The marriage soon deteriorates primarily because Marian fails to rise above the preconceptions and limitations of her social class and is therefore unable to share her husband's interests Eventually she runs away with a man who is her social peer but he proves himself a scoundrel and abandons her in desperate circumstances Her husband rescues her and offers to take her back but she pridefully refuses convinced she is unworthy and certain that she faces life as a pariah to her family and friends The Irrational Knot Bernard Shaw, 2019-06-23 A story of the knot of marriage of how marriage leads to unhappiness The Irrational Knot, 1931 The Irrational Knot George Bernard Shaw, 2017-05-25 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public To ensure a quality reading experience this work has been proofread and republished using a format that seamlessly blends the original graphical elements with text in an easy to read typeface We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant
