Winter In The Morning:

Winter in the Morning Janina Bauman,1991 Janina Bauman was thirteen years old when Hitler s decree forced her family into the Jewish ghetto in Warsaw The young bright and lively girl suddenly found herself in a cramped flat hiding with other Jewish families At first even curfews and the casual cruelty meted out by the German occupiers could not completely wipe out her passion for books boys and romance Perhaps we ve been wasting the last bits of our lives not even trying to found out what life is Then came the raids and Janina with her sister and mother had to keep on the move to avoid being one of thousands rounded up every day and deported to the camps Their escape to the Aryan side was followed by years spent behind hidden doors where dependence on others was crucial and all that a growing girl craves denied Told through her teenage diaries this is an extraordinary tale of a passionate young woman s survival and courage
