Current History ,1918 Current History and Forum ... ,1918 Exile, Statelessness, and Migration Seyla Benhabib,2018-09-11 An examination of the intertwined lives and writings of a group of prominent twentieth century Jewish thinkers who experienced exile and migration Exile Statelessness and Migration explores the intertwined lives careers and writings of a group of prominent Jewish intellectuals

during the mid twentieth century in particular Theodor Adorno Hannah Arendt Walter Benjamin Isaiah Berlin Albert Hirschman and Judith Shklar as well as Hans Kelsen Emmanuel Levinas Gershom Scholem and Leo Strauss Informed by their Jewish identity and experiences of being outsiders these thinkers produced one of the most brilliant and effervescent intellectual movements of modernity Political philosopher Seyla Benhabib s starting point is that these thinkers faced migration statelessness and exile because of their Jewish origins even if they did not take positions on specifically Jewish issues personally The sense of belonging and not belonging of being eternally half other led them to confront essential questions What does it mean for the individual to be an equal citizen and to wish to retain one s ethnic cultural and religious differences or perhaps even to rid oneself of these differences altogether in modernity Benhabib isolates four themes in their works dilemmas of belonging and difference exile political voice and loyalty legality and legitimacy and pluralism and the problem of judgment Surveying the work of influential intellectuals Exile Statelessness and Migration recovers the valuable plurality of their Jewish voices and develops their universal insights in the face of the crises of this new century

Re-Mapping Exile Michael Boss,Irene Gilsean Nordin,Britta Olinder,2006-05-01 The essays in this collection combine historical cultural and literary analyses in their treatment of aspects of exile in Irish writing Some are structuralist in seeing exile as a physical state of being often associated with absence into which an individual willingly or unwillingly enters Others are poststructuralist considering the narration of exile as a celebration of transgressiveness hybridity and otherness This type of exile moves away from a political cultural economic idea of exile to an understanding of exile in a wider existential sense The volume presents readings of Irish literature history and culture that reflect some of the historical sociological psychological and philosophical dimensions of exile in the 1800s and 1900s The theme of exile is discussed in a wide range of texts including literature political writings and song writing either in works of Irish writers not normally associated with exile or in which new aspects of exile can be discerned The essays cover among others Butler D Arcy McGee Mulholland Joyce Hewitt Van Morrison Ni Chuilleanain Doyle and Banville
