Pirkis,1878 In a world of his own Catharine Louisa Pirkis,1878 Zamalek Chafika Soliman Hamamsy,2005 Between the reign of Muhammad Ali Pasha 1805 48 and the end of the Second World War a dramatic transformation of the Egyptian sociopolitical scene took place particularly within the confines of the ruling class During that period and owing in large measure to Muhammad Ali s reforms

a new class system emerged with its revised gradations from lower to upper strata The central concern of this book is the change that took place in upper class Egyptian society from a staunch conservatism toward more westernized liberal norms in the hundred years spanning the turn of the nineteenth century The district of Zamalek on the Nile island of Gezira became for a variety of reasons the preferred neighborhood for a fast growing rapidly evolving upper middle class and by the mid 1920s it had become the abode of an elite group whose way of life was manifestly more westernized than that of its predecessors Zamalek was the focal point of social change and its elite role models actively engaged in the creation of these new social norms By following the lives of one family this book describes how these people lived interreacted and changed often under the impetus of international events and looks at some of the beliefs and traditions upon which their life was based As Egypt enters the twenty first century with a noticeable reappearance of the veil and an apparent return to the values of the past this account by someone who grew up within that group is a timely examination of the social westernization of twentieth century Egypt the forces that led to it and the events that made it possible Time of Our Lives Tom Kirkwood,2001-01-11 By the year 2050 one in five of the world s population will be 65 or older a fact which presages profound medical biological philosophical and political changes in the coming century In Time of Our Lives Tom Kirkwood draws on more than twenty years of research to make sense of the evolution of aging to explain how aging occurs and to answer fundamental questions like why women live longer than men He shows that we age because our genes evolving at a time when life was nasty brutish and short placed little priority on the long term maintenance of our bodies With such knowledge along with new insights from genome research we can devise ways to target the root causes of aging and of age related diseases such as Alzheimer s and osteoporosis He even considers the possibility that human beings will someday have greatly extended life spans or even be free from senescence altogether Beautifully written by one of the world s pioneering researchers into the science of aging Time of Our Lives is a clear original and above all inspiring investigation of a process all of us experience but few of us understand The Ill-tempered Cousin Frances Elliot,1885 The Story of Sophia Frances Minto Elliot,1891 The Model Wife, Nineteenth-century Style Rona Randall,1989 A young lady aspiring to a good marriage in the nineteenth century had not only to be well versed in the strict codes of etiquette considered essential in society circles she was also expected to manage a large household to dress correctly to be a compliant partner in the marriage bed and to provide with devotion and obedience for her husband s needs and comfort and further his career with the right social contacts Rona Randall drawing on her researches as a historical novelist describes both the social and the domestic world in which the model wife functioned with examples of contemporary recipes for the table and for home cures for common ailments This fully illustrated and wide ranging account of the role of the model wife contains copious information about the myths and mores of the time and the problems that women had to contend with back cover Mosaic Gladys Bronwyn Stern,1930 Self centered sister of prolific Jewish family tries to dominate younger members John Fortescue Reynolds,
