Intercultural Language Use and Language Learning Eva Alcon Soler, Maria Pilar Safont Jorda, 2007-05-24 Eva Alcon Soler Maria Pilar Safont Jord Universitat Jaume I Spain The main purpose of the present book is to broaden the scope of research on the development of intercultural communicative competence Bearing this purpose in mind English learners are considered as intercultural speakers who share their interest for engaging in real life communication According to Byram and Fleming 1998 the intercultural speaker is someone with knowledge of one or more cultures and social identities and who enjoys discovering and maintaining relationships with people from other cultural backgrounds although s he has not been formally trained for that purpose Besides possessing knowledge of at least two cultures is the case of many learners in bilingual or multilingual communities In these contexts the objective of language learning should then focus on developing intercultural competence which in turn may involve promoting language diversity while encouraging English as both a means and an end of instruction see Alcon this volume This is the idea underlying the volume which further sustains Kramsch s argument 1998 against the native non native dichotomy Following that author we also believe that in a multilingual world where learners may belong to more than one speech community their main goal is not to become a native speaker of English but to use this language as a tool for interaction among many other languages and cultures

Ethnic Diversity and Federalism Yonatan Tesfaye Fessha, 2016-05-23 How federalism can be used to provide recognition and accommodate ethnic groups is an important topic not only in Africa but in multi ethnic communities around the world Examining how institutions of multi ethnic states have been designed to accommodate ethnic diversity while at the same time maintaining national unity this book locates institutional responses to the challenges of ethnic diversity within the context of a federal arrangement It examines how a federal arrangement has been used to reconcile the conflicting pressures of the demand for the recognition of distinctive identities on the one hand and the promotion of political and territorial integrity on the other Comparative case studies of South Africa and Ethiopia as the two federal systems provide a contrasting approach to issues of ethnic diversity Suggesting new ways in which federalism might work the author identifies key institutions lessons which will help to build an all inclusive society Unity in Diversity Harm Pinkster, Inge Genee, 1990 The Cambridge Handbook of Cognition and Education John Dunlosky, Katherine A.
