Unsettling Relations:

Unsettling Relations Himani Bannerji, 1992 In a provocative collection of essays the authors examine the disjuncture between academic feminism and feminism in the academy An eminently readable hard hitting and much needed critique of the curricular pedagogical and scholarly practices that legitimate the unequal social relations in the academy Chandra Talpade Mohanty Asian American Poets Guiyou Huang, 2002-05-30 Even though Asian American literature is enjoying an impressive critical popularity attention has focused primarily on longer narrative forms such as the novel And despite the proliferation of a large number of poets of Asian descent in the 20th century Asian American poetry remains a neglected area of study Poetry as an elite genre has not reached the level of popularity of the novel or short story partly due to the difficulties of reading and interpreting poetic texts The lack of criticism on Asian American poetry speaks to the urgent need for scholarship in this area since perhaps more than any other genre poetry most forcefully captures the intense feelings and emotions that Asian Americans have experienced about themselves and their world This reference book overviews the tremendous cultural contributions of Asian American poets Included are alphabetically arranged entries on 48 American poets of Asian descent most of whom have been active during the latter half of the 20th century Each entry begins with a short biography which sometimes includes information drawn from personal interviews The entries then discuss the poet s major works and themes including such concerns as family racism sexism identity language and politics A survey of the poet s critical reception follows In many cases the existing criticism is scant and the entries offer new readings of neglected works The entries conclude with bibliographies of primary and secondary texts and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography

Decolonizing Place in Early Childhood Education Fikile Nxumalo, 2019-05-23 This book draws attention to the urgent need for early childhood education to critically encounter and pedagogically respond to the entanglements of environmentally damaged places anti blackness and settler colonial legacies Drawing from the author s multi year participatory action research with educators and children in suburban settings the book highlights Indigenous presences and land relations within ongoing settler colonialism as necessary yet often ignored aspects of environmental education Chapters discuss topics such as geotheorizing in a capitalist society absences of Black place relations and unsettling unquestioned Western assumptions about nature education Rather than offer prescriptive solutions this book works to broaden possibilities and bolster the conversation among teachers and scholars concerned with early years environmental education
