Young Torless:

The Confusions of Young Törless Robert Musil, 2014 Set in a boarding school in a remote area of the Habsburg Empire at the turn of the last century The Confusions of Young Torless is an intense study of an adolescent's psychological development as he struggles to come to terms with his conflicting emotions Through his relationship with two other boys Torless is led into sadistic and sexual encounters with a third pupil which both repel and fascinate him Estranged from everyday life Torless gradually learns to accept his experiences and describe them with analytical precision

The Confusions of Young Torless Robert Musil, 2001-09-01 At a bleak isolated military school on the fringes of the Austro-Hungarian Empire four young cadets Torless Beineberg Reiting and their victim Basini rift even further away from their school fellows into a private world of ritual secrecy and torture For more than seventy years Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English-speaking world With more than 1,700 titles Penguin Classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines Readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors as well as up-to-date translations by award-winning translators From the Trade Paperback edition

Young Törless Robert Musil, 1955 Understanding Robert Musil Allen Thiher, 2009 Deft analysis of the fiction, theater, and essays of the author of The Man without Qualities In this critical introduction to the major works of Austrian modernist writer Robert Musil (1880-1942) Allen Thiher offers a deft analysis of Musil's short fiction, theater, and essays and his major novel The Man without Qualities Thiher maps Musil's development as a writer illustrating how his work evolved in response to catastrophic historical events such as World War I, the collapse of the Austro-Hungarian Empire, and Hitler's seizure of power From this historical context Thiher traces how Musil began his career by writing a prescient first novel about ideological developments in German culture and at the same time a doctoral thesis on scientific epistemology Following his service in World War I Musil began to view writing as his vocation and during this early period in his literary career he produced short fiction, plays, and some of the most interesting essays on politics, ethics, and literature to be published during the Weimar era In exploring these writings as well as The Man without Qualities, a work left unfinished upon Musil's death in exile during World War II, Thiher's study plumbs the depths of Musil's ambition and accomplishments and presents a concise interpretation of the lasting significance of the writer's interrogations of the foundations of modern European culture

Volker Schlöndorff's Cinema Hans Bernhard Moeller, George L. Lellis, 2012-10-31 Volker Schlöndorff's Cinema: Adaptation, Politics, and the Movie Appropriate examines the work of major postwar German director Volker Schlöndorff in historical, economic, and artistic contexts Incorporating a film-by-film, twenty-eight chapter study, Hans Bernhard Moeller and George Lellis reveal a complexity and formal ambitiousness of Schlöndorff that is comparable to that found in Wenders, Herzog, and Fassbinder In spite of Schlöndorff's successes with films like The Lost Honor of Katharina Blum and The Tin Drum, as well as his acclaimed work in the U.S. with Death of a Salesman, Gathering of Old Men and The Handmaid's Tale this is the first in depth critical study of the filmmaker's career In the context of film and television history this book relates Schlöndorff's oeuvre to the New German Cinema to his formative years as a student and production assistant in France and to his roots in the Weimar cinema's tradition It reveals how Schlöndorff entered into the German film production system in the 1960s how he came to rely on German public television in the 1970s and then moved to the international and American financing in the 1980s attempting to redevelop the Babelsberg studios in a 1990s post Wall Germany while continuing to make his own films into the 21st century The book captures how Schlöndorff's nearly half century of ongoing creativity and productivity ties together The authors analyze the artistry of each Schlöndorff movie arguing that his output as a whole embodies a provocative and sometimes contradictory set of balances Schlöndorff combines commercial interest with significant artistic ambition blends the kinesthetic pleasures of moving images with the seriousness of fine literature links the intensity of individualized personal experience to an awareness of broader political issues and represents a specifically German sensibility even as he reaches out to the international audiences The authors demonstrate the cyclical recurrence in his cinema of certain themes individual and collective rebellion fascist suppression masochistic love narrative patterns the Western the thriller the subjective mood piece and stylistic approaches Brechtian Verfremdung the creation of careful leitmotif structures the use of the grotesque In over thirty years of filmmaking Schlöndorff has produced a remarkable unified body of work that deserves the attention of a book length study Authors Hans Bernhard Moeller and George Lellis offer the first such study of its kind Volker Schlöndorff's Cinema: Adaptation, Politics, and the Movie Appropriate features forty one illustrations

A Critical History of German Film Stephen Brockmann, 2010 A history of German film dealing with individual films as works of art has long been needed Existing histories tend to treat cinema as an economic rather than an aesthetic phenomenon earlier surveys that do engage with individual films do not include films of recent decades This book treats representative films from the beginnings of German film to the present Providing historical context through an introduction and interchapters preceding the treatments of each era's films the volume is suitable for semester or year long survey courses and for anyone with an interest in German cinema The films The Student of Prague The Cabinet of Dr. Caligari The Last Laugh Metropolis The Blue Angel M. Triumph of the Will The Great Love The Murderers Are among Us Sun Seekers Trace of Stones The Legend of Paul and Paula Solo Sunny The Bridge Young T. rless Aguirre The Wrath of God Germany in Autumn The Marriage of Maria Braun The Tin Drum Marianne and Juliane Wings of Desire Maybe, Maybe, Not Rossini Run Lola Run Good Bye Lenin Head On The Lives of Others Stephen Brockmann is Professor of German at Carnegie Mellon University and past President of the German Studies Association

Complex Pleasure Stanley Corngold, 1998 Complex Pleasure deals with questions of literary feeling in eight major German writers Lessing Kant Hölderlin Nietzsche Musil Kafka Trakl and Benjamin On the basis of close readings of these authors Stanley Corngold makes vivid the following ideas that where there is literature there is complex pleasure that this pleasure is complex because it involves the impression of a disclosure that this thought is foremost in the minds of a number of canonical writers that important literary works in the German tradition fiction poetry critique can be illuminated through their treatment of literary feeling and finally that the conceptual terms for these forms of feeling continually vary The types of feeling treated in Complex Pleasure include wit the startling perception of likeness and the disinterested pleasure of aesthetic judgment Hlderlin s swift conceptual grasp in which the tempo of the process of thought is stressed artistic imagination mood sadistic enjoyment rapturous distraction homonymic dissonance and courage as a mode of literary experience At the same time through the deftness range and surprise of its execution the book itself conveys complex pleasure The reader will also find fascinating hitherto untranslated material by Nietzsche On Moods and Kafka important sections from his journals and from his unfinished novel The Boy Who Sank Out of Sight Doing Educational Research Kenneth George Tobin,2006 The authors explore a variety of topics from methodologies such as ethnography action research hermeneutics historiography psychoanalysis literary criticism to issues such as social theory epistemology and paradigms Back cover The Confusions of Young Törless (riverrun editions) Robert Musil,2021-11-11 The Confusions of Young Torless is a taut powerful depiction of teenage masculinity in this short novel set in an Austrian military academy An unpopular boy is gradually bullied and humiliated by a coterie of better off classmates until the almost unbearable conclusion This was the work which made Musil s name and is his most popular work before his unfinished masterpiece The Man Without Qualities Time Briton Hadden, Henry R. Luce,1955 The Facts on File Companion to the World Novel Michael Sollars, Arbolina Llamas Jennings,2008 Young Törless R. Musil,1982

Curriculum Visions William E. Weinberger,1992 This is an in depth analysis of three works of students of German film history and post war culture as it leads up to late 1980s political developments The study puts films by West German film directors Helma Sanders Brahm Jutta Bruckner and Marianne Rosenbaum in the context of both German film politics feminist film theory and the West German cultural socio political context of the 1980s
