The New System Det Ny System:

The New System Bjornstjerne Bjornson, 2003-10-01 Bjornstjerne Bjornson 1832-1910 was a poet, dramatist, novelist, journalist, editor, public speaker, theatre director, and one of the most prominent public figures in the Norway of his day. He was awarded the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1903 and is generally known together with Henrik Ibsen, Alexander Kielland, and Jonas Lie as one of the four great ones of 19th-century Norwegian literature. His poem "Ja, vi elsker dette landet" (Yes, We Love This Land) is the Norwegian national anthem. Dramatic Books & Plays (in English) Published During 1913 Henry Eastman Lower, George Heron Milne, 1914 A History of Norwegian Literature Harald S. Næss, 1993-01-01 Volume 2

Locomotion in Literature Martin Zerlang, 2025-07-01 The invention of the locomotive changed landscapes, cityscapes, social relations, sensibilities prophesied by Hans Christian Andersen; it also made huge impact on literature, on genres, themes, style. This book is about this commotion, this literary locomotion, as it has been represented in Danish literature. The book explores the movements between text and context and the interplay between literature and social history. Through the prism of the railway, the book provides an overview of Danish literary history from writers such as Søren Kierkegaard, Georg Brandes, Henrik Pontoppidan, Johannes V. Jensen, Tove Ditlevsen, Peter Høeg. The locomotive of history is a well-known metaphor, but a historical reading of these writers also shows the impact of history on this metaphor, from something extraordinary to something more ordinary. Hans Christian Andersen wrote about meeting God face to face on the railway. The experience of the modern commuter is closer to what Georges Perec calls the "infraordinary." As reflected in the work of Peter Høeg, however, the railway also figures in the intense contemporary debates on decolonizing. The book draws on theoretical insights expressed in concepts such as chronotope, character, and literary speed. This book will be of interest to students and scholars in literature studies, history, transport and mobility studies, human geography, and urban studies. The Warner Library Charles Dudley Warner, John William Cunliffe, Ashley Horace Thorndike, Harry Morgan Ayres, Helen Rex Keller, Gerhard Richard Lomer, 1917 Eminent Authors of the Nineteenth Century Georg Brandes, 2020-07-26 Reproduction of the original Eminent Authors of the Nineteenth Century by Georg Brandes Catalogue of Copyright Entries, 1913 Monthly Bulletin St. Louis Public Library, 1913 Teachers bulletin vol 4 issued as part of v 23 no 9 A Partial List of Plays in the Library ... St. Louis Public Library, 1917 History of Humanity UNESCO, 2005-12-31 Volume V of the History of Humanity is concerned with the early modern period, the sixteenth, seventeenth, and eighteenth centuries. It gives an extensive overview of this crucial stage in the rise of the West, as well as examining the development of cultures and societies elsewhere. Structure: The volume is divided into two main parts. The first is thematic, discussing the geography, chronology, and sociology of cultural change in this period. The second is regional, less theoretical and more empirical; it stresses cultural diversity, the links between different activities in a given region, and the importance of social contexts and local circumstances. Each chapter has a bibliography which directs the reader to sources of further information. The volume is
