Disrupting Human Resources Talent Rules Ganesh Shermon, 2016-12-07 Human Resources Disrupted This book is a detailed analysis of what causes HR disruptions in both positive and negative ways It is about CEO and CHRO s role and their influence in building organizations or destroying value while struggling to understand digital business models products customers and high performing cultures The book contains best practice examples of people disruptors digital strategies for talent management predictions trends HR functions going out of fashion digital climate possibilities Value based cultures organizational design HR tech elements HR knowledge management organization re roles and HR business model based structural options detailed surveys tests methodologies on Talent Strategies etc At the core Talent Rules Towards a U.S. Army Officer Corps Strategy for Success Casey Wardynski, David Stephen Lyle, Michael J. Colarusso, 2010 Over the last 3 decades dramatic labor market changes and well intentioned but uninformed policies have created significant officer talent flight Poor retention engenders substantial risk for the Army as it directly affects accessions development and employment of talent The Army cannot make thoughtful policy decisions if its officer talent pipeline continues to leak at current rates Since the Army cannot insulate itself from labor market forces as it tries to retain talent the retention component of its officer strategy must rest upon sound market principles It must be continuously resourced executed measured and adjusted across time and budget cycles Absent these steps systemic policy and decisionmaking failures will continue to confound Army efforts to create a talent focused officer corps strategy Handbook on the Geographies of Creativity Anjeline de Dios, Lily Kong, 2020-09-25 How can the where of creativity help us examine how and why it has become a paradigmatic concept in contemporary economies and societies Adopting a geographically diverse theoretically rigorous approach the Handbook offers a cutting edge study of creativity as it has emerged in policy academic activist and cultural discourse over the last two decades To this end the volume departs from conventional modes of analyzing creativity by industry region or sector and instead identifies key themes that thread through shifting contexts of the creative in the arts media technology education governance and development By tracing the myriad spatialities of creativity the chapters map its inherently paradoxical features reinforcing persistent conditions of inequality even as it opens avenues for imagining and enacting more equitable futures Transformational Human Resources Management in Zimbabwe Mervis Chiware, Bernard Nkala, Innocent Chirisa, 2022-09-19 This book is a stepping stone toward solving public sector human capital challenges in Zimbabwe as it equips human capital managers with solutions to key issues in the public sector In Zimbabwe the public sector human capital drives the economy as over half of the population access their services through public enterprises Government is the major agent in economic and infrastructure development as well as the production of goods and services However Zimbabwe s public service is underperforming due to poorly motivated and managed employees who do not respond to the needs of its clients This is a cause of concern as the public sector human capital is central to the overall performance of the public sector Often public sector managers and leaders lack advanced relevant and dynamic skills and knowledge to deal with human resource challenges within the New Public Management environment It is critical for the public sector to transform its human resource management to suit twenty first century needs Effective human resource management in the public sector leads to economic growth and therefore the achievement of the Zimbabwe National Vision 2030 Therefore this book serves as a guide for public sector managers and those directly or indirectly involved in human capital management It provides in depth knowledge and guidance in effective human capital management within the context of the public sector in Zimbabwe

Startup Cities Peter S. Cohan, 2018-02-07 This book offers a comprehensive model for explaining the success and failure of cities in nurturing startups presents detailed case studies of how participants in that model help or hinder startup activity and shows how to apply these lessons to boost local startup activity Startup Cities explains the factors that determine local startup success based on a detailed comparison of regional startup cities pairing the most successful and less successful cities within regions along with insights and implications from case studies of each of the model s elements The book compares local city pairs highlighting factors that distinguish successful from less successful cities and presents implications for stakeholders that arise from these principles Peter Cohan is a lecturer of Strategy at Babson College and one of the world s leading authorities on regional startup ecosystems Starting in 2012 he created and led Startup Strategy courses that explore four regional startup ecosystems Hong Kong Singapore Israel Paris and Spain Portugal These courses are based on an original framework for evaluating why a few cities host most startup creation and the rest fail to do so In running these courses Peter has built a network of local policymakers investors entrepreneurs and professors from which he draws practical insights for what distinguishes successful Startup Commons from their peers The book provides vital benefits to these stakeholders What You ll Learn Local policymakers will know how to build a local team to set objectives for their local Startup Commons and develop a comprehensive strategy to realize those goals Entrepreneurs will know how to choose where to locate their startups based on factors such as the supply and quality of talent from chief marketing and technology officers to coders and sales people quality of life access to capital customers and mentors and costs such as salary and real estate expense University administrators and faculty will know how to take research out of their labs and house it in companies that can commercialize that research create academic programs that will encourage more entrepreneurship among their students and connect with local policymakers and capital providers to spur local startup activity Capital providers will know how to scout out emerging startup cities where they can get access to the best investment opportunities at more favorable valuations and have greater influence on how the local startup scene evolves Who This Book Is For All key startup stakeholders including local policymakers mayors directors of economic development treasurers controllers presidents of regional chamber of commerce entrepreneurs CEOs chief marketing officers chief financial officers chief HR officers chief technology officers universities presidents deans of faculty provosts professors of finance management and entrepreneurship directors of international education and capital providers venture capital partners and associates angel investors bank loan officers managers of accelerator operations Flight, 1930 Strategic Digital Transformation Alex Fenton, Gordon Fletcher, Marie Griffiths, 2019-11-25 Emerging technologies are having a profound impact upon business as individuals and organisations increasingly embrace the benefits of the always on attitude that digital technologies produce The use of the web apps cloud storage GPS and Internet connected devices has transformed the way we live learn play and interact yet how a business can fully benefit from this transformation is not always clear In response this book enables students and business leaders to take a strategic and sustainable approach to realising the value of digital technologies It offers results driven solutions that successfully transform organisations into data driven people focused businesses capable of sustainably competing at a global level Split across four key parts the material moves through understanding digital business to planning implementing and assessing digital transformation The current challenges facing all small organisations including limited resources financial pressures and the lack of dedicated IT departments are explored The authors consider the ways in which innovation can increase competitive advantage how innovative business models can create new opportunities and how a data driven perspective can release embedded value within the organisation Contemporary international case studies and examples throughout each chapter bridge theory with practical application and systematically document the patterns of activities that enable success This textbook is a vital resource for postgraduate and undergraduate students of digital business innovation and transformation By showing how to initiate digital transformation across an organisation it will prepare business owners directors and management of small and medium sized businesses to take strategic advantage of new and emerging technologies to stay ahead of their competition The Right Place Arturo Bris, 2021-07-28 The Right Place explains why firms succeed in one country and fail in another irrespective of their inner drivers and suggests potential initiatives that governments can take to help the private sector create jobs and consequently make their countries more prosperous The competitiveness race is not unlike a cycling race If you want to ride fast you need three things a good bike to be in good shape and a smooth and fast road In a collaborative model you might say the business is the bicycle the business leader is the cyclist and the road is the government and the external environment The responsibility of a government is to design and build the best possible road It turns out that when the road is good good cyclists suddenly appear and want to race on it In this book competition and macroeconomics expert Arturo Bris provides the analysis of country competitive performance based on 30 years advising countries on this topic The typical mistakes that countries make are revealed and the pillars necessary in building a competitive economy economic performance as a necessary condition for prosperity government efficiency so the public sector can create the conditions for a productive economy business efficiency so companies can create jobs and infrastructure both tangible and intangible so businesses and individuals can operate efficiently With contemporary case studies throughout the book provides an illuminating read for
