Talkin and Testifyin Geneva Smitherman,1985      Talkin and Testifyin Geneva Smitherman,1977      Reframing the Practice of Philosophy George Yancy,2012-01-01 This daring and bold book is the first to create a textual space where African American and Latin American philosophers voice the complex range of their philosophical and meta philosophical concerns approaches and visions The voices within this book protest and theorize from their own standpoints delineating the specific existential philosophical and professional problems they face as minority philosophical voices      Legacies of Christian Languaging and Literacies in American Education Mary M. Juzwik,Jennifer C. Stone,Kevin J. Burke,Denise Dávila,2019-10-23 Because spiritual life and religious participation are widespread human and cultural phenomena these experiences unsurprisingly find their way into English language arts curriculum learning teaching and teacher education work Yet many public school literacy teachers and secondary teacher educators feel unsure how to engage religious and spiritual topics and responses in their classrooms This volume responds to this challenge with an in depth exploration of diverse experiences and perspectives on Christianity within American education Authors not only examine how Christianity the historically dominant religion in American society shapes languaging and literacies in schooling and other educational spaces but they also imagine how these relations might be reconfigured From curricula to classroom practice from narratives of teacher education to youth coming to faith chapters vivify how spiritual lives beliefs practices communities and religious traditions interact with linguistic and literate practices and pedagogies In relating legacies of Christian languaging and literacies to urgent issues including White supremacy sexism and homophobia and the politics of exclusion the volume enacts and invites inclusive relational configurations within and across the myriad American Christian sub cultures coming to bear on English language arts curriculum teaching and learning This courageous collection contributes to an emerging scholarly literature at the intersection of language and literacy teaching and learning religious literacy curriculum studies teacher education and youth studies It will speak to teacher educators scholars secondary school teachers and graduate and postgraduate students among others      Across Black Spaces George Yancy,2020-01-31 Across Black Spaces gathers and builds on a diverse array of essays and interviews by American philosopher and leading public intellectual George Yancy Within this multidisciplinary framework are works from The New York Times The Guardian and other major media outlets which have drawn international acclaim for their spotlight on vicious racial tensions in American academia and society at large With this collection of revised and updated works Yancy engages a vast scope of social political historical linguistic and philosophical themes that together illustrate what it means to be Black in America Four sections of the book engage first moral outrage at contemporary ethical crises second the search for identity and value of vulnerability third the history and present values of Black and Africana philosophy and fourth the essential role of African American language in understanding Black lived experience Representing twenty years of persistent inquiry and advocacy Across Black Spaces celebrates Yancy's undeniable importance in American intellectual progress and essential social change Current Index to Journals in Education, 1995 A Teacher's Introduction to African American English Teresa M. Redd, Karen Schuster Webb, 2005 Known at various times as Black English Ebonics and currently as African American English AAE the spoken word of many African Americans is influenced by dialectical and linguistic features How AAE interacts with standard written English is explored including the effect on students ability to write in standard English and how a teacher can help students become effective writers The African-American Oral Tradition in Selected Writings of Zora Neale Hurston, Toni Morrison and Alice Walker Eliza Marcella Young, 1999 Readings in African American Language Nathaniel Norment, 2003 Readings in African American Language Aspects Features and Perspectives is the most comprehensive collection in African American Vernacular English AAVE available that provides various theoretical approaches of its origin development and advantages The contributors provide many different perspectives and topics relevant to the study of African American language as an academic social cultural linguistic entry in the field of language study Hip-hop Revolution Jeffrey Ogbonna Green Ogbarr, 2007 As hip hop artists constantly struggle to keep it real this fascinating study examines the debates over the core codes of hip hop authenticity as it reflects and reacts to problematic black images in popular culture placing hip hop in its proper cultural political and social contexts 'Miscommunication' and Problematic Talk Nikolas Coupland, Howard Giles, John M. Wiemann, 1991 Language use and communication are pervasively and even intrinsically flawed partial and problematic this is the contention of this volume which explores failures in interpersonal communication Rather than approaching communication in terms of competence effectiveness efficiency and satisfaction the contributors reassess key social contexts in terms of miscommunication rather than communication failure rather than success They provide an integrative overview of research in defined social contexts highlighting particular social groups social situations and communicative modes The elderly children non native speakers medical personnel and the disabled are among those discussed The Woman Question Mary Evans, 1994-06-24 This new edition of The Woman Question brings together the most influential analyses of women's position in society to have emerged in the past decade The discussion encompasses both theoretical issues of identity and the economic and political status of women It demonstrates the impact of gender not only on how the social world is organized but on how we understand and interpret that world Recognizing the diversity of women's experiences it pays particular attention to the interactions of race class gender and sexuality Leading feminists explore the concept of gender difference its impact on women and its representation in culture They discuss the material realities of women's lives and how these are The Disciple, 1979 Dictionary Buying Guide Kenneth F. Kister, 1977 You Know My Steez H. Samy Alim, 2004 The 2004 Publication of the American Dialect Society You Know My Steez is the culmination of nearly four years of direct study and hands on experience by a teacher researcher and active community member in the working class suburb of Sunnyside California Focusing on the language and linguistic practices of students at Haven High School an ethnically and linguistically diverse school the author examines both the internal linguistic constraints and the external social constraints race gender and cultural literacy among others that shape speech styles particularly among Black male and female hipoppers Contributing to the development of a more refined methodological approach to the study of linguistic styleshifting the author integrates the study of sociolinguistic variation interactional analysis the use of discourse analysis to examine the implicit rules and roles that govern social interaction and ethnographic fieldwork to develop a deeper understanding of how when and why speakers shift their styles Publication American Dialect Society,2004 Men's Lives Michael S. Kimmel,Michael A. Messner,2007 Edited by two of the field s most prominent researchers this best selling reader on men and masculinity contains the most current articles available Organized around themes that define masculinity this reader takes a life course perspective using the idea that men as well as women are gendered and that this gendering process is a central experience for men New to This Edition Twenty four readings are new to this edition New topics include being a male pro feminist college instructor the meaning of being labeled a fag growing up as a sissy gender non conforming boy ritualized homosexual behavior among the Tarfs a subculture of the Nacirema sexual assault in military academies male cheerleaders drag queens fathering in modern American society images of masculinity in beer and liquor ads sexuality and sports talk radio and the culture of aggression and violence among ice hockey players Men's Lives ,2004 Compulsory land acquisition and involuntary displacement of communities for a larger public purpose captures the tension of development in the modern state with the need to balance the interests of the majority while protecting the rights of the minority In India informal estimates of involuntary resettlement are estimated to be around 50 million people over the last five decades and three fourths of those displaced still face an uncertain future Growing public concern over the long term consequences of this has led to greater scrutiny of the rehabilitation and resettlement process particularly for large development projects This book examines a number of new policy formulations put in place at both the central and state levels looking at land acquisition procedures and norms for rehabilitation and resettlement of communities The book combines a theoretical analysis of the proposed regulatory framework with detailed case studies that examine the application of these norms in specific geographic contexts across the country It brings together contributory analysis by some of the country s most engaged administrators academics and activists in the field and is a useful contribution to Development Studies Black Faith and Public Talk Dwight N. Hopkins,1999 A critical collection of essays celebrates the thirtieth anniversary of James Cone s landmark work Black Theology and Black Power Black Theology and Black Power was the book that signaled the birth of Black theology an effort to relate the Christian gospel to the black struggle for liberation This collection of critical voices both black and white male and female assesses the significance of Cone s initial work and the subsequent progression of Black Theology How has black faith fashioned a public discourse that combines ethical political and theological concerns To what extent does Black Theology challenge the complacency of white academic and theological discourse What is the future role and relevance of black faith not just for African Americans but for the wider society and church in America Book Jacket The Journal of Speculative Philosophy ,2004
