Ettington, This is a book about living immortals in their own words People who are hundreds if not thousands of years old and living in our world today Their commentaries come from a discussion board I have been using for a couple of years to market my earlier book Physical Immortality A History and How to Guide There are over twelve distinct immortal personalities who posted on this board and they all have different perspectives on their lives as immortals One of the main characters on the site said this about the immortals I have met over 170 other immortals dating from 20 000 years old to 110 years old from around Earth Gods are in another league I have met 15 Gods Goddesses most are Norse Celtic Gods There is at least 2000 of us out of your 7 billion humans doing the exact same as me ie jobs names some still hide in mountains and forests Do I believe all of this I do have some skepticism but even if it is not true it is a great story If true it is one of the greatest revelations of all time

Ethos Aaron Dworkin, 2017-07-18 A science fiction thriller set in Flint Michigan 500 years in the future where humans can choose to die a natural death or live forever David is a forty eight year old divorced accountant from Flint Michigan who finds himself drawn suddenly and without warning through the use of a virtual reality game into a world five hundred years in the future the Planet Ethos Flint Michigan still exists on Ethos but it is a city rocked by colliding and seemingly contradictory forces Advanced biotechnology coexists with avian species that have devolved to resemble ancient pterodactyls Human beings are racially and religiously tolerant as never before yet they've organized themselves along a tribal division between the Immortals and the Bereft And Flint and Detroit are locked in a dangerous violent conflict a war that could annihilate the human race or secure lasting peace for the first time in history Along with his adopted teenage son Malcolm David learns that on Ethos humans have evolved the genetic capacity for immortality a trait they earn by discovering their purpose in life or their ethos Does David a consummate drifter have such an ethos Will he fight on the side of the Immortals or join the Bereft a group of humans who age and die naturally and eschew the idea that life has a singular unchanging purpose Join David and Malcolm in their struggle for meaning and their battle for the future of the human race itself
