years Vladimir Putin s Russia has waged a concerted campaign to expand its influence and undermine Western institutions But how and why did all this come about and who has orchestrated it In Putin s People the investigative journalist and former Moscow correspondent Catherine Belton reveals the untold story of how Vladimir Putin and the small group of KGB men surrounding him rose to power and looted their country Delving deep into the workings of Putin s Kremlin Belton accesses key inside players to reveal how Putin replaced the freewheeling tycoons of the Yeltsin era with a new generation of loyal oligarchs who in turn subverted Russia s economy and legal system and extended the Kremlin s reach into the United States and Europe The result is a chilling and revelatory expos of the KGB s revanche a story that begins in the murk of the Soviet economy for themselves suppressing independent voices and launching covert influence operations abroad Ranging from

Poverty and Vulnerability in Kenya Elizabeth Ngutuku, 2025-01-29 Drawing from ethnographic research this book presents children's lived experience of poverty and vulnerability in Kenya. By taking the case of Siaya Kenya which has some of the lowest indicators of child well-being, the book presents children's complex lived experience from three interlinked everyday spaces of the home, the school, and support programmes. It argues that children's experience is formed at the interstices of material lack, historically as well as politically located factors, and the complex context of social relations. The book is anchored in an innovative methodology of listening softly to children's voice. Aimed at fully capturing children's experience, listening softly focusses on the different ways that children's voice happens. The book challenges scholarship to go beyond multi-dimensionality and re-imagine children's experience as complex and entangled. Use methods that are attuned to capturing children's messy experience of poverty and be widely awake in each intervention context to capture the emergent, fluid experience of children. Presenting a non-linear, contextual, entangled, and complex experience of poverty and vulnerability, this book will be of interest to scholars and students in the field of Poverty Studies, Development Studies, Childhood Studies, Social Policy, Critical Studies, Human and Child Rights, and African Studies. The Cumulative Book Index, 1975. This Hour Has Seven Decades Patrick Watson, 2005. Patrick Watson, much to his surprise, found himself hosting a CBC television series at the age of 26. Within weeks, he had abandoned both his doctoral studies and a promising career in publishing to sail into the uncharted waters of the new medium. Ten years later, he was one of the best-known people in Canada, primarily because of a television series called THIS HOUR HAS SEVEN DAYS, which regularly reached more viewers than HOCKEY NIGHT IN CANADA. During its spectacular two-year run, Watson was on the front pages of the nation's major newspapers week after week. Throughout a broadcasting career that began in radio 61 years ago, he has written, produced, directed, acted in, or hosted literally thousands of television programs and films, from creating children's radio adventure drama to globe-girdling documentaries, from anchoring a daily news show on New York City's famous Channel XIII to producing/directing for Jacques Cousteau. As well, Watson hosted the first CBC Current Affairs series to be named for its host and created the Historical Foundation's famous Heritage Minutes. In THIS HOUR HAS SEVEN DECADES, Watson gives a first-person account of a sunny and adventurous childhood, the early days of broadcasting, the troubled years of his chairmanship of the CBC, and the myriad of projects of the in-between and later years in a frank, gossipy narrative that reflects the storytelling skills that have made his novels and historical books bestsellers. Citizen's Media Monitor: A Report on the Campaign and Elections Coverage in the Philippines, 2004, 2004. Time, 2001.
