Davis, David de Vries, Lex Heerma van Voss, Lidewij Hesselink, Klaus Weinbauer, 2017-09-29 Workers who loaded and unloaded ships have formed a distinctive occupational group over the past two centuries As trade expanded so the numbers of dock labourers increased and became concentrated in the major ports of the world This ambitious two volume project goes beyond existing individual studies of dock workers to develop a genuinely comparative international perspective over a long historical period Volume 1 contains studies of 22 major ports worldwide Built around an agreed framework of issues these port studies examine the type of workers who dominated dock labour their race class and ethnicity the working conditions of dockers and the role of government as employer arbitrator and supporter The studies also detail how dockers organized their labour patterns of strike action and involvement in political organizations The structure of the port city is also outlined and descriptions given of the waterside environment These areas of investigation form the basis for a series of 11 thematic studies which comprise Volume 2 Drawing on the information provided in the port studies these essays identify important aspects and recurring themes and explain how and why particular cases diverge from the rest The final chapter of the book synthesizes the various approaches taken to offer a model which suggests several configurations of dock labour and presents suggestions for future research This major scholarly achievement represents the most sustained attempt to date to provide a comparative international history of dock labour An annotated bibliography completes this essential reference work Politics and Nationality in Contemporary Soviet-Jewish Emigration, 1968-89 Laurie P. antagonists to settle their conflict on the battlefield Based on archival sources and the most up to date scholarly research this comprehensive history offers new insights into Arab British and Zionist policies It is a must read for anyone with an interest in Palestine Israel British Colonialism and the Middle East in general Israel, a Revolutionary Factor in Jewish Existence Ludwig Lazarus Berger,1973 Futile Diplomacy - A History of Arab-Israeli Negotiations, 1913-56 Neil Caplan,2021-03-04 These four volumes provide a careful and balanced behind the scenes account of the intricate diplomatic activity of the period between 1913 and 1956 Exploiting a range of available archive sources as well as extensive secondary sources they provide an authoritative analysis of the positions and strategies which the principal parties and the would be mediators adopted in the elusive search for a stable peace The text of each volume comprises both analytical historical chapters and a selection of primary documents from archival sources providing an essential reference source for the student of the Arab Israeli conflict and its long history The Jewish Woman ,1928 Studies in Contemporary Jewry: XII: Literary Strategies: Jewish Texts and Contexts Ezra Mendelsohn,1996 This volume of this important series deals with Jewish identity in literature Particular attention is paid to changing national and popular myths folk memory and the historical consciousness of Jews in modern times The Palestine Weekly ,1930 The Monthly Pioneer ,1928 The Maccabæan ,1919 Report of the Proceedings of the 24th Annual Convention of the Zionist Organization of America Zionist Organization of America,1921 Bulletins of the Copenhagen Office of the Zionist Organisation Zionist Organisation.
