Neokleous, Georgios, Krulatz, Anna, Farrelly, Raichle, 2020-03-27 Literacy has traditionally been associated with the linguistic and functional ability to read and write Although literacy as a fundamental issue in education has received abundant attention in the last few decades most publications to date have focused on monolingual classrooms Language teacher educators have a responsibility to prepare teachers to be culturally responsive and flexible so they can adapt to the range of settings and variety of learners they will encounter in their careers while also bravely questioning the assumptions they are encountering about multilingual literacy development and instruction. The Handbook of Research on Cultivating Literacy in Diverse and Multilingual Classrooms is an essential scholarly publication that explores the multifaceted nature of literacy development across the lifespan in a range of multilingual contexts. Recognizing that literacy instruction in contemporary language classrooms serving diverse student populations must go beyond developing reading and writing abilities, this book sets out to explore a wide range of literacy dimensions. It offers unique perspectives through a critical reflection on issues related to power, ownership, identity, and the social construction of literacy in multilingual societies. As a resource for use in language teacher preparation programs globally, this book will provide a range of theoretical and practical perspectives while creating space for pre- and in-service teachers to grapple with the ideas in light of their respective contexts. The book will also provide valuable insights to instructional designers, curriculum developers, linguists, professionals, academicians, administrators, researchers, and students.

Tips for planning, structure, and timing suggestions, and ideas for responsive teaching, detailed planning templates, and 22 accompanying online videos covering over 3 hours of classroom footage, Jennifer's reflections, key look-fors, and ideas for next steps. The nine lesson structures can be used with any curriculum or core program text and subject, making it easier for teachers to maximize explicit and engaging teaching time across the day and simplify planning and preparation. Jennifer incorporates a wide range of compelling research about how best to teach reading to every student in your class and translates the research or the science of teaching reading into high-leverage moves you can count on to deliver powerful lessons, again and again.
