Walker,2001 Africans and their descendants constituted the majority of the population of the Americas for most of the first three hundred years Yet their fundamental roles in the creation and definition of the new societies of the Onew world O and their significance in the development of the Atlantic world have not been acknowledged This multidisciplinary volume highlights the African presence throughout the Americas and African and African Diasporan contributions to the material and cultural life of all of the Americas and of all Americans It includes articles from leading scholars and from cultural leaders from both well known and little known African Diasporan communities Privileging African Diasporan voices it offers new perspectives data and interpretations that challenge prevailing understandings of the Americas Its fundamental premise is that the story of the Americas can only be accurately told by including the story of the foundational roles played by Africans and their descendants in the Americas Christ, the African King Ukachukwu Chris Manus,1993 Studies on Christology in contemporary Africa have been so far centred around the titles Liberator Healer Ancestor Immanuel Nganga and so on Cast in such local categories Christ is presented as fulfilling all cultures Christ the African King one such effort presents a fascinating ethnographical description of four African most celebrated traditional kingships Ethno historical data for biblical studies are uncovered With the multi disciplinary approach the sketched African background furnishes the raw material for the elaboration of King Christology which has serious implications on liturgy the ecclesial community and the African socio political arena The work is thus a cross cultural presentation of NT theology in harmony with Africa s royal heritage It points up inter alia rich ideas for contextualization and inculturation of Christianity in Africa Afro-Catholic Festivals in the Americas Cécile Fromont,2019-04-24 This volume demonstrates how from the beginning of the Atlantic slave trade enslaved and free Africans in the Americas used Catholicism and Christian derived celebrations as spaces for autonomous cultural expression social organization and political empowerment Their appropriation of Catholic based celebrations calls into question the long held idea that Africans and their descendants in the diaspora either resignedly accepted Christianity or else transformed its religious rituals into syncretic objects of stealthy resistance In cities and on plantations throughout the Americas men and women of African birth or descent staged mock battles against heathens elected Christian queens and kings with great pageantry and gathered in festive rituals to express their devotion to saints Many of these traditions endure in the twenty first century The contributors to this volume draw connections between these Afro Catholic festivals observed from North America to South America and the Caribbean and their precedents in the early modern kingdom of Kongo one of the main regions of origin of men and women enslaved in the New World This transatlantic perspective offers a useful counterpoint to the Yoruba focus prevailing in studies of African diasporic religions and reveals how Kongo infused Catholicism constituted a site for the formation of black Atlantic tradition Afro Catholic Festivals in the Americas complicates the notion of Christianity as a European tool of domination and enhances our comprehension of the formation and trajectory of black religious culture on the American continent It will be of great interest to scholars of African diaspora religion Christianity and performance In addition to the editor the contributors include Kevin Dawson Jeroen Dewulf Junia Ferreira Furtado Michael Iyanaga Dianne M Stewart Miguel A Valerio and Lisa Voigt The Glory of African Kings and Queens Pusch Commey,2014-09-23 The glory of African Kings and Queens is adapted from Volume one of 100 Great African Kings and Queens This amazing journey through the sands of time opens a rich African world to a younger age group and celebrates with them a shared humanity without borders A History of the African Methodist Episcopal Church Charles Spencer Smith,1922 The Health and Physique of the Negro American Atlanta University,1906 History of the African Methodist Episcopal Church Daniel Alexander Payne,1922 African Kings and Queens Green, Richard L,Clay, Steve,McKissack, Fredrick,Dobson, S.
