Strategic Management. Levis Case Analysis Khaled Bekhet,2020-08-25 Seminar paper from the year 2019 in the subject Business economics Business Management Corporate Governance language English abstract In 1995 women s jeans were a 2 billion fashion category in the US and growing fast Levi Strauss was the market leader but its traditional dominant position was under heavy attack Standard Levi s women s jeans sold in 51 size combinations waist and inseam had been the industry leading product for decades but fashion was now taking over the category Market research showed that only 24 percent of women were fully satisfied with their purchase of standard jeans at about 50 per pair Fashion in jeans meant more styles more colors and better fit All of these combined to create a level of product line complexity that was a nightmare for manufacturing oriented push based companies like Strauss By 1995 Strauss operated 19 Original Levi s retail stores across the country 2 000 to 3 000 square foot mall stores to put them in closer touch with the ultimate customers However this channel was a very small part of their overall 6 Billion sales which were still primarily to distributors and or independent retailers Shows Levi s financial footprint Strauss was as aggressive as most apparel manufacturers and retailers in investing in process improvements and information technology to improve manufacturing and delivery cycle times and pull based responsiveness to actual buying patterns However the overall supply chain from product design to retail sales was still complex expensive and slow In spite of substantial improvements in recent years including extensive use of EDI there was still an eight month lag on average between ordering cotton fabric and selling the final pair of jeans The industry average lag was still well over twelve months in 1995 The financial footprint for one pair of women s jeans sold through the normal wholesale channel compared to one pair sold through an Original Levi s Store summarized in American Agriculturist ,1894 Ingall's Home and Art Magazine ,1889 Good Housekeeping ,1901 The Ladies' Home Journal ,1897
