Truths Of Others:

The Two Voices Within Nickolas Martin, Linda M. Martin, 2015-12-21 Ego and Spirit both speak profoundly within our lives. Can you hear what they are saying to you? These two voices are the main energies that rise up and give shape to our thoughts, feelings, behaviors, and physical health. As we go about meeting life's challenges such as change, adversity, stressors, conflicts, relationships, self-esteem, achievement, and our ability to experience genuine happiness, the voice of an unconscious, imbalanced ego is unfortunately the one we more often hear and heed, leading us into a lesser version of ourselves. The Two Voices Within: Balancing the Energies of Ego and Spirit to Enhance Your Life invites you to more clearly hear what both of these voices are saying so that you can speak with more of your true voice and recognize the One Voice of the Universe. This awakening will enable you to be the best version of yourself and optimally meet life's challenges.

Journalism and the Philosophy of Truth Jesse Owen Hearn-Branaman, 2016-02-12 This book bridges a gap between discussions about truth, human understanding, and epistemology in philosophical circles and debates about objectivity, bias, and truth in journalism. It examines four major philosophical theories in easy-to-understand terms while maintaining a critical insight which is fundamental to the contemporary study of journalism. The book aims to move forward the discussion of truth in the news media by dissecting commonly used concepts such as bias, objectivity, balance, and fairness in a philosophically grounded way, drawing on in-depth interviews with journalists to explore how journalists talk about truth.

Humans End Movie Final Chapter Dr. Everett C. Borders, 2017-07-11 This is part two and three in the final chapter of Humans End, a screenplay of the journeys and sagas of the human and social experiments. This is a frantic and frenzied rush to attempt to save the human experience, driven by maniacal and holistic perspectives, and to attempt to reverse the damaging degeneration of the male Y chromosome and male pineal gland maturation decay due to the neutrino tau destruction on the human body. This screenplay makes penitent narratives of human health, lifestyles, future innovations, and drama and horror, and political possibilities of some solutions coupled with a total finality of the human experience as we know it.

Truth Commissions and Transitional Societies Eric Wiebelhaus-Brahm, 2010-01-05 This book uses a multi-method approach to examine the impact of truth commissions on subsequent human rights protection and democratic practice, and features cross-national case studies on South Africa, El Salvador, Chile, and Uganda.

Caring for the People of the Clouds Jonathan Yahalom, 2019-04-04 In rural Mexico, people often say that Alzheimer's does not exist. People do not have Alzheimer's because they don't need to worry, said one Oaxacan, explaining that locals lack the stresses that people face over there. That is, in the modern world, Alzheimer's and related dementias carry a stigma. In contrast, the way elders are revered for remembering local traditions, dementia symbolizes how modern families have forgotten the communal values that bring them together. In Caring for the People of the Clouds, psychologist Jonathan Yahalom provides an emotionally evocative story.

rich analysis of family caregiving for Oaxacan elders living with dementia Based on his extensive research in a Zapotec community Yahalom presents the conflicted experience of providing care in a setting where illness is steeped in stigma and locals are concerned about social cohesion Traditionally the Zapotec or people of the clouds respected their elders and venerated their ancestors Dementia reveals the difficulty of upholding those ideals today Yahalom looks at how dementia is understood in a medically pluralist landscape how it is treated in a setting marked by social tension and how caregivers endure challenges among their families and the broader community Yahalom argues that caregiving involves more than just a response to human dependency it is central to regenerating local values and family relationships threatened by broader social change In so doing the author bridges concepts in mental health with theory from medical anthropology Unique in its interdisciplinary approach this book advances theory pertaining to cross cultural psychology and develops anthropological insights about how aging dementia and caregiving disclose the intimacies of family life in Oaxaca
