FRANZ. BOAS,2019 Tsimshian Texts (Classic Reprint) Franz Boas,2015-07-21 Excerpt from Tsimshian d104s The following texts were collected in Kinkolith at the mouth of the Nass river during the months of November and December 1894 while I was engaged in researches under the auspices of the British Association for the Advancement of Science The principal object of these investigations was a study of the Athapascan tribe of Portland canal and the following texts were collected incidentally only The ethnologic results of these investigations were published in the reports of the Committee on the Northwestern Tribes of Canada of the British Association for the Advancement of Science The texts are in the Nass River dialect of the Tsimshian language The dialect is called by the natives Nisqa E The texts were obtained from four individuals Philip Moses Chief Mountain and Moody By far the greater number of them are myths of the tribe Judging from similar myths which I collected in previous years among the Tsimshian proper they are only moderately well told Possibly the method of transcribing sounds is not quite satisfactory I have not been able to determine definitely if there are one or two palatized l s I consider it probable that there may be two but in the present texts all the palatized l s are rendered by one character There is also a certain inconsistency in my perception of the surds and sonants the fortis or the surd followed by a hiatus very often sounding similar to the sonant I have not endeavored to make the spelling throughout consistent but have rather followed the transcription which seemed to me most appropriate at the time when I wrote the texts down About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
