Sweet Machine Poems:

Sweet Machine Mark Doty, 1998 A collection of lyrical and joyful poems explores the sweet machine of the body as a vibrant sensual living thing

Sweet Machine Mark Doty, 2009-10-13 Mark Doty's last two award winning collections of poetry as well as his acclaimed memoir Heaven's Coast used the devastation of AIDS as a lens through which to consider questions of loss love and identity The poems in Sweet Machine see the world from a new hard won perspective A coming back to life after so much death a way of seeing the body's sweet machine not simply as a time bomb but also as a vibrant sensual living thing These poems are themselves sweet machines lyrical exuberant and joyous and they mark yet another milestone in the extraordinary career of one of our most distinguished and accomplished poets

Transformation & Other Poems Miles Walters, Transformation this can create moments of clear thought trains and moments of detailed abstraction Other Poems are a selection of writings from various periods of time and collected these poems are written not only as pieces of poetic verse but also to create synthetic scenes using minimalist stripped back writing

Diva Rafael Campo, 1999 A new collection of poems examining issues of the poet's Cuban identity his work as a physician and his life as a gay man

Poems Clara A. Merrill, 1915

The Strategic Smorgasbord of Postmodernity Deborah Bowen, 2011-05-25 Contemporary Christian critique often talks about postmodernism apocalyptically in terms of cultural crisis and decline instead the contributors to this volume believe that there is a new place for Christian entries on the academic Smorgasbord of postmodernity and they see the postmodern turn as an opportunity for fresh perspectives on the spiritual dimensions of reading literature These twenty scholars are an eclectic group differing in theological and theoretical commitments but all identifying as Christian In this collection they enter into dialogue with a wide range of contemporary literary theorists and theoretical perspectives and offer new readings of primary texts informed by both these theoretical constructs and their Christian faith The manuscript strikes out in important new directions in its sympathetic reading of postmodern theory from a Christian perspective and even more significantly in its careful and measured dialogic approach to the relationship of Christian thought and contemporary literary theory

Daniel Coleman Canada Research Chair in Critical Ethnicity and Race Studies Department of English and Cultural Studies McMaster University Too often Christian literary critics and theologians have preemptively dismissed postmodern theory even as secular critics have been equally dismissive about the contributions that the Christian faith tradition makes to the study of literature This volume successfully brings these two worlds together in innovative at times challenging and always rich ways I do not know of a similar volume in existence a work that gathers in one convenient publication a wide ranging set of discussions of contemporary literary theory by Christian scholars The editor has gathered an impressive and important set of papers here and I believe the volume will raise much interest and provoke a good deal of constructive debate
