community dimension that typifies Raab's work. The four essays in the final segment, California is Different, will come as a pleasant bonus in a work that otherwise features the more global dimensions of Jewish life in America. The first section on the North American Community features essays by S. N. Eisenstadt, Nathan Glazer, Arnold Eisen, Chaim Waxman, and Morton Weinfield. The second section on Politics contains contributions by Irving Kristol, Carl Sheingold, Eyton Gilboa, and Alan Fisher. The third segment is on Jewish Community Life with essays by Daniel Eleazar, Larry Ruben, and Arnold Dashevsky. This is in short a major collective statement by scholars long associated with the subject. It will be of interest to political scientists and sociologists interested in ethnic studies and Jewish life in America. Jewish Political Studies, Daniel Judah Elazar, 1985.

Schnall, Jerome A. Chanes, 1998-05-30. This comprehensive look at the Jewish American community at the turn of the 21st century explores the many issues American Jews and their organizations are confronting and shows how the Jewish community responds so as to remain a distinct entity while also becoming a part of the larger American culture. The contributors investigate the complex issues facing the American Jewish community in 12 areas that are at the heart of the Jewish communal enterprise.
