of Canadian Westerns were set a different task from their American counterparts and were subsequently freed to create some of the most complex and engrossing fiction yet produced in Canada Davidson details the evolution of the U S and Canadian Western forms tracing the divergence between the two as Canadian writers responded to their unique historical circumstances by reinventing the West as well as the Western and establishing a new literary landscape where author and reader could work out new possibilities of being Surveying a range of texts by Canada s most innovative writers with special attention to women writers and Native stories of Coyote he provides close readings of novels by Howard O Hagan Sheila Watson Robert Kroetsch Aritha van Herk Anne Cameron Peter Such W O Mitchell Beatrice Culleton and Thomas King A unique study Coyote Country offers at one and the same time a theory of Canadian Western fiction a history of crosscultural paradigms of the West as manifested in novels and an intensive reading of some of Canada s best literature Nature and Its Unnatural Relations Alain Beauclair, Josh Toth, 2024-07-08 Consisting of contributions from a host of international scholars in fields as diverse as literature architecture philosophy and education Alain Beauclair and Josh Toth s Nature and Its Unnatural Relations Points of Access intercedes in ongoing debates about accessing defining and respecting a world humans continue to misuse and misunderstand and that as a result is becoming increasingly inhospitable The chapters shuttle between a variety of aesthetic and philosophical concerns from theology and Biblical interpretation to colonialism hermeneutics phenomenology worlding posthumanism and speculative realism These varied approaches are united by a single aporetic thread efforts to surmount the problem of human access invariably risk repeating ever more blindly the violence and immorality of anthropocentrism We seem trapped in the cul de sac of the Anthropocene To discover potential new exits the contributors consider whether it is possible or advisable to abandon so called correlationism of art of literature of technology If it is then how If not how might we more ethically reembrace our innately corruptive relations with a world of non human others How might we free nature finally from the demands of human action and human thought without mendaciously reinscribing humanity s distance from it or denying a proximity that is only traversable by artificial means
