Teaching In America Free:

Are American Teachers Free? Howard Kennedy Beale,1936 Investigation of the social studies in the schools The Teaching American History Project Rachel G. Ragland,Kelly A. Woestman,2010-05-26 The premise of the Teaching American History TAH project a discretionary grant program funded under the U S Department of Education s Elementary and Secondary Education Act is that in order to teach history better teachers need to know more history Unique among professional development programs in emphasizing specific content to be taught over a particular pedagogical approach TAH grants assist schools in implementing scientifically based research methods for improving the quality of instruction professional development and teacher education in American history Illustrating the diversity of these programs as they have been implemented in local education agencies throughout the nation this collection of essays and research reports from TAH participants provides models for historians teachers teacher educators and others interested in the teaching and learning of American History and presents examples of lessons learned from a cross section of TAH projects Each chapter presents a narrative of innovation documenting collaboration between classroom community and the academy that gives immediate and obvious relevance to the teaching and learning process of American history By sharing these narratives this book expands the impact of emerging practices from individual TAH projects to reach a larger audience across the nation Teachers' Manual to Accompany Reader and Guide for New Americans Alfred Watkins Castle,1924 Are American Teachers Free? Beale Howard K.,1984-01-01 Teacher's Guide for An Introduction to American Civilization Harold Ordway Rugg,James Edgar Mendenhall,1929 The Free Church Chronicle ,1904 New American History and Government Series for Teachers and Students Arthur Raymond McCook,1915 Modern American Library Economy as Illustrated by the Newark, N. J., Free Public Library John Cotton Dana,1908 Teaching American Studies Elizabeth A. Duclos-Orsello,Joseph B. Entin,Rebecca Hill,2021-08-17 What if American Studies is defined not so much in the pages of the most cutting edge publications but through what happens in our classrooms and other learning spaces In Teaching American Studies Elizabeth Duclos Orsello Joseph Entin and Rebecca Hill ask a diverse group of American Studies educators to respond to that question by writing chapters about teaching that use a classroom activity or a particular course to reflect on the state of the field of American Studies Teaching American Studies speaks to teachers with a wide range of relationships to the field To start it is a useful how to guide for faculty who might be new to or unfamiliar with American Studies Each author brings the reader into their classes to offer specific concrete details about their pedagogical practice and their students learning The resulting chapters connect theory and educational action as well as share challenges difficulties and lessons learned The volume also provides a collective impression of American Studies from the point of view of students and teachers What primary and secondary texts and what theoretical challenges and issues do faculty use to organize their teaching How does the teaching we do respond to our institutional and educational contexts How do our experiences and those of our students challenge or change our understanding of American Studies Chapters in this collection discuss teaching a broad range of materials from memoirs and novels by Anne Moody and Octavia Butler to cutting edge cultural theory to the widely used collection Keywords for American Cultural Studies But the chapters in this collection are also about dancing eating and walking around a campus to view statues and gravestones They are about teaching during the era of Donald Trump Black Lives Matter and giving up authority in the classroom Teaching American Studies is both a new way to think about American Studies and a timely collection of effective ways to teach about race gender sexuality and power in a moment of political polarization and intense public scrutiny of universities

Scientific American ,1904 Free Speech and Intellectual Diversity in Higher Education Paul Carrese,Carol McNamara,James Stoner,2023-06-19 The essays in Free Speech and Intellectual Diversity in Higher Education reflect diverse perspectives on one of the most pressing issues in higher education the controversies over freedom of speech and its relation to intellectual diversity Does the First Amendment apply on campuses and do its principles clarify or obscure the issues surrounding campus speech What after all is the basis for those principles and how do they relate to the purposes of the university Is free speech truly effective without a diversity of perspectives and to what extent is such diversity found at universities today Does free speech discourage the inclusion of minorities or previously excluded groups Are there specific policies that can address the issue of free speech on campuses today in ways that are fair to all parties and to the interests at stake
