Teaching Like The Master Getting Beyond Techniques:

Teaching Like the Master D. Cecil Clark,1994-01-01 Laoshi: Tai Chi, Teachers, and Pursuit of Principle Jan Kauskas,2014-05-01 The book is a kind of semifictional memoir Chapters reflect the author s own experiences gained in the pursuit of tai chi and other martial arts The text flows as a novel but with substance based solidly in reality applicable to anyone tai chi practitioner or not since the main theme is the pursuit of principle in everyday life Book Description A tai chi student explores the Dao of Zheng Manqing with the aid of his teacher Laoshi Through personal accounts reflection and dialogue with Laoshi we witness the novice s evolution in his search for the spirit of the art and the resulting bond forged with his instructor Together student and teacher examine the philosophical and martial aspects of tai chi They demonstrate what it means to pursue principle and they see the ease with which it can be lost to that trickster and provocateur the ego Engaging sincere and at times lighthearted this fictional memoir narrated from the student s perspective addresses themes familiar to all who study tai chi and the martial arts Laoshi is a journey into tai chi and a meditation on life and living without fear

Deterritorializing Language, Teaching, Learning, and Research ,2019-12-16 It is now recognized that language teachers and learners are both users and creators of knowledge in socially culturally politically materially complex and unpredictable environments With this in mind an increasing number of researchers in Second Language Education have progressively broken away from traditional ways of studying educational practices to find novel and more complex ways to conceptualize and study language teachers and learners teaching and learning practices and knowledge development This book is in line with these trends and should be considered as the actualization of experimentations with novel ways to apprehend the interrelationships between language and education by drawing on the conceptual repertoire of French philosopher Gilles Deleuze and his collaborator Félix Guattari To guide us through this reflexive journey ten scholars specialized in the field of Second Language Education call on their experiences as language educators and researchers to explore the intersections between language teaching learning and research focusing on the experiences of diverse populations e g students immigrants teachers etc in multiple settings e g Canada Japan United Kingdom universities and family literacy intervention programs Through this book new insights and lines of thought are generated on how research and educative practices can be transformed to reimagine second language teaching learning and research to think differently about the experiences of language teachers learners and researchers and disrupt the processes that may prevent us from innovating and seizing future opportunities Contributors are Francis Bangou Maria Bastien Valença Joff P N Bradley Martina Emke Douglas Fleming Roumiana Ilieva Brian Morgan Enrica Piccardo Aisha Ravindran Gene Vasilopoulos and Monica Waterhouse
