What Makes Life Meaningful? Thaddeus Metz,Joshua W. Seachris,2023-11-30 Can human life be meaningful What does talk about life s meaning even mean What is God s role if any in a meaningful life These three questions frame this one of a kind debate between two philosophers who have spent most of their professional lives thinking and writing about the topic of life s meaning In this wide ranging scholarly conversation Professors Thaddeus Metz and Joshua W Seachris develop and defend their own unique answers to these questions while responding to each other s objections in a lively dialog format Seachris argues that the concept of life s meaning largely revolves around three interconnected ideas mattering purpose and sense making that a meaningful human life involves sufficiently manifesting all three and that God would importantly enhance the meaningfulness of life on each of these three fronts Metz instead holds that talk of life s meaning is about a variety of properties such as meriting pride transcending one s animal self making a contribution and authoring a life story For him many lives are meaningful insofar as they exercise intelligence in positive robust and developmental ways Finally Metz argues that God is unnecessary for an objective meaning that suits human nature Metz and Seachris develop and defend their own unique answers to these three questions while responding to each other s objections in a dialog format that is accessible to students though given their new contributions will be of great interest to scholars as well Key Features Offers an up to date scholarly conversation on life s meaning by two researchers at the forefront of research on the topic Provides a wide ranging yet orderly discussion of the most important issues Accessible for the student investigating the topic for the first time yet also valuable to the scholar working on life s meaning Includes helpful pedagogical features like Chapter outlines and introductions Annotated reading lists for both students and research level readers A glossary and Clear examples thought experiments narratives and cultural references which enhance the book s role in thinking about life s meaning and related topics The New View of Hell Benjamin Fiske Barrett,2023-07-18 This book is a groundbreaking exploration of the nature of hell In addition to describing the traditional Christian view of hell it explores alternative interpretations of the afterlife from a range of religious traditions The author provides practical advice on how to escape the torments of hell and offers a new perspective on the relationship between morality and the hereafter Thought provoking and insightful this book is essential reading for those seeking a deeper understanding of the afterlife This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant Encyclopedia of World Religions Encyclopaedia Britannica, Inc.,2008-05-01 A guide to the religions of the world and to the concepts movements people and events that have shaped them It includes features such as entries on religious movements and concepts historical and legendary figures divinities religious sites and ceremonies images that show sacred places vestments rituals objects and texts and more Reasoning from the Scriptures with Muslims Ron Rhodes,2002-07-01 Anyone interested in sharing the gospel with Muslim friends or understanding the doctrines and historical basis of Islam will appreciate this addition to the popular Reasoning from the Scriptures series Using an easy to follow question and answer format Reasoning from the Scriptures with Muslims covers issues including Muhammad and Jesus Christ what are their roles the Quran and the Bible what kind of inspiration and authority do they have Islam today what different groups exist and how can Muslims be reached with the good news Each chapter examines a Muslim belief and compares it with biblical Christianity Readers will find this an invaluable tool for discussing and sharing the words and life of Jesus Christ with Muslim friends and acquaintances The View from Here James E. McLeod-Harrison,2017-04-17 I am the way the truth and the life says Jesus Yet the kingdom of heaven consists of all tribes races and peoples How do people of tribes who've never heard the word of Christ enter the kingdom of God. A strictly exclusivist account of the gospel seems to keep many people out of the kingdom of heaven. An inclusivist approach is more consonant with Scripture and the love of God. Yet standard models of inclusivism are problematic. In this book, McLeod Harrison, a Christian philosopher, considers what's wrong with both narrow exclusivist and narrow inclusivist accounts of the gospel and proposes a broad inclusivism called expansivism. An expansive account of the gospel helps us understand the uniqueness and the openness of the gospel together. Narrow exclusivism can lead to existential crises. Narrow inclusivism appears to make not preaching the gospel better for those who've never heard it. Expansivism makes human access to the gospel unique to the individual person and enables Christian theologians to provide lots of different, potentially conflicting, and yet true accounts of the theological underpinnings of the salvation provided by Christ.

The Language, Mythology, and Geographical Nomenclature of Japan Viewed in the Light of Aino Studies Basil Hall Chamberlain, John Batchelor, 1887 New-Church Messenger, 1914 Christ Triumphant Thomas Allin, 2015-06-08. I plead for the acceptance of this central truth as the great hope of the gospel: that the victory of Jesus Christ must be final and complete, i.e., that nothing can impair the power of his cross and passion to save the entire human race.

Thomas Allin. In 1885 the Rev. Thomas Allin waded into the debates on final punishment that had plagued the Church of England during the nineteenth century. His contribution was a radical book that sought to demonstrate that reason, tradition, and Scripture all affirm that God will one day redeem his whole creation through Jesus Christ. Universal salvation, he maintained, was the only way to coherently affirm the victory of God over evil. Allin's book is one of the first detailed attempts to show that global salvation was not some modern heresy but an ancient Christian tradition with a serious claim to catholicity and orthodoxy. Turning the tables on the critics, Allin boldly argued that universalism, far from being dangerous, was actually needed to defend the orthodox faith of the church. This new edition of Allin's classic work includes an introduction that sets it in its historical context, the addition of subtitles to help readers navigate the argument, and numerous explanatory annotations.
