statesman A story which Vernon a combat veteran of the Persian Gulf War and a literary scholar trained by officers and professors of the Vietnam era is uniquely suited to tell Conversations with Tim O'Brien Patrick A. Smith, 2012-10-22 On the strength of a National Book Award for his novel Going After Cacciato and a widely acclaimed short story cycle The Things They Carried Tim O'Brien b 1946 cemented his reputation as one of the most compelling chroniclers of Vietnam and in the process was cast as a Vietnam writer But to confine O'Brien to a single piece of ground or a particular style is to ignore the broad sweep of a career spanning nearly four decades In addition to detailed discussions of all of O'Brien's work a memoir If I Die in a Combat Zone and seven books of fiction the sixteen interviews and profiles in Conversations with Tim O'Brien explore common themes with subtle differences Looming large is the experience of Vietnam and its influence as well as O'Brien's youth in Minnesota and the expectations of a midwestern upbringing Interviews allowed the writer to fully examine the shifting boundaries of truth and identity memory and imagination in fiction the role of war in society gender issues and the craft of writing O'Brien approaches each of these topics and a host of others with a directness and an evident passion that will resonate with both readers and prospective writers The United States and Viet Nam from War to Peace Robert M. Slabey, 1996 Some twenty years after the end of the Vietnam War America does not seem yet to have recovered spiritually or emotionally Despite the recent reopenings of diplomatic relations the idea of reconciliation between the United States and Vietnam is anathema to a large number of Americans In December 1993 historians Asia scholars writers artists filmmakers journalists psychiatrists government officials antiwar activists veterans activists reconciliation advocates and Vietnamese gathered at the University of Notre Dame to discuss the process of understanding the American culture that created the war the American culture created by the war and issues that affect full reconciliation for both the United States and Indochina including Laos Cambodia and Vietnam Papers examining the literature of reconciliation were also presented American Tatts Linh Dinh, 2005 Summary of the Yugoslav Press, 1968-07-10 Mānoa, 2002 Borderless Bodies Linh Dinh, 2005 Linh Dinh's third book of poems Borderless Bodies is a fierce yet playful investigation into the body as metaphors with its various processes as allegories The body as polity and politics is also given a serious patdown This is perhaps Linh Dinh's most ambitious and accomplished book to date Factory School Book Review Index, 2004 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation Crossing the River Huy Thiệp Nguyễn, 2003 Crossing the River presents a wide range of Nguyen Huy Thiep's short fiction both realistic stories in contemporary settings and retellings of folk myths that serve as contemporary parables When Thiep's stories first appeared in the 1980s they set off a chain of debate not only within intellectual and political circles but also within the society at large Typically the struggles of his characters were about survival not survival in the context of war or revolution but survival in the context of the emotional and psychological strength it takes to live within the harsh confines of post war Vietnamese society Thiep captured the emotional quality of Vietnamese life in a way no other author had done and his importance can be recognized today by his enormous influence on
