Street Murals:

Street Gallery Robin J. Dunitz, 1998 Street Art in the Middle East Sabrina de Turk, 2019-06-27 Since the 2011 Arab Spring street art has been a vehicle for political discourse in the Middle East and has generated much discussion in both the popular media and academia Yet this conversation has generalised street art and identified it as a singular form with identical styles and objectives throughout the region Street art's purpose is however defined by the socio-cultural circumstances of its production Middle Eastern artists thus adopt distinctive methods in creating their individual work and responding to their individual environments Here in this new book Sabrina De Turk employs rigorous visual analysis to explore the diversity of Middle Eastern street art and uses case studies of countries as varied as Egypt Tunisia Lebanon Palestine Bahrain and Oman to illustrate how geographic specifics impact upon its function and aesthetic Her book will be of significant interest to scholars specialising in art from the Middle East and North Africa and those who bring an interdisciplinary perspective to Middle East studies

Graffiti Murals Patrick Verel, 2015 Six case studies conducted in New York City Trenton and Jersey City explore how graffiti murals are created and what role they play in cities where buffing illegal graffiti is a lucrative business The author interviewed people affected on a daily basis by the murals at sites around the metropolitan area including property owners who have welcomed the muralists in hopes that the artwork would serve as a deterrent to vandalism and provide a more aesthetically pleasing alternative to buffing This analysis informed by cultural Marxism and supported by street photography suggests a radical departure from traditional New York City policy instead of spending money exclusively on the elimination of illegal graffiti resources should also be devoted to the creation of graffiti murals In the end graffiti removal teams and mural promoters are pursuing the same goal making the city a more visually appealing place
