Teaching Strategies Donald C. Orlich, 1985 Teaching Strategies is an introductory core text known for its down to earth practical help on the most commonly used classroom teaching strategies and tactics including lesson planning, questioning and small group and cooperative learning strategies. Part 2 begins with a new chapter on the holistic nature of the instructional process which serves as a foundation to chapters on instructional goals, design, sequencing, management, instructional alignments and assessment. Reflection Boxes pose questions and challenges that require active student participation including doing Internet searches to explore topics and find resources.

Effective Teaching Methods Gary D. Borich, 1996 This text presents practical yet realistic research based teaching practices that have proven effective for engaging students in the learning process, managing their classroom and increasing student achievement. It not only tells what to do to obtain these results but shows how to obtain them. The text explains how individual differences and learner diversity affect student learning needs and classroom management. It also explores teaching strategies in depth explaining how to use both direct instructional methods and indirect methods. A self-report survey instrument is included to help teachers measure concerns about themselves, the teaching task and their impact on students.
