The Good German:

Representing the "good German" in Literature and Culture After 1945 Pól Ó Dochartaigh, Christiane Schönfeld, 2013 Essays analyzing postwar literary cultural and historical representations of good Germans during the Second World War and the Nazi period In the aftermath of the Second World War both the allied occupying powers and the nascent German authorities sought Germans whose record during the war and the Nazi period could serve as a counterpoint to the notion of Germans as evil That search has never really stopped In the past few years we have witnessed a burgeoning of cultural representations of this other kind of Third Reich citizen the good German as opposed to the committed Nazi or genocidal maniac Such representations have highlighted individuals choices in favor of dissenting behavior moral truth or at the very least civil disobedience The good German s counterhegemonic practice cannot negate or contradict the barbaric reality of Hitler s Germany but reflects a value system based on humanity and an other ideal community This volume of new essays explores postwar and recent representations of good Germans during the Third Reich analyzing the logic of moral behavior cultural and moral relativism and social conformity found in them It thus draws together discussions of the function and reception of Good Germans in Germany and abroad Contributors Eoin Bourke Manuel Bragança Maeve Cooke Kevin De Ornellas Sabine Egger Joachim Fischer Coman Hamilton Jon Hughes Karina von Lindeiner Strasky Alexandra Ludewig P l O Dochartaigh Christiane Schönfeld Matthias Uecker P l O Dochartaigh is Professor of German and Dean of the Faculty of Arts at the University of Ulster Northern Ireland Christiane Schönfeld is Senior Lecturer in German and Head of the Department of German Studies at Mary Immaculate College University of Limerick

Involution & Evolution Joss Sheldon, 2014-08-28 It s not easy to make a stand for peace when you live in a world which is besotted with war This is the story of Alfred Freeman a boy who does everything he can to serve humankind He feeds five thousand youths salves saves and soothes and champions the maligned He helps paralytics to feel fine turns water into wine and gives sight to the blind When World War One draws near his nation is plunged into fear and so Alfred makes a stand He opposes the war and calls for peace disobeys the police and speaks out across the land He makes speeches and he preaches using statements which sound grand But the authorities hit back and launch a potent attack which is full of disgust derision and disdain Alfred is threatened with execution and suffers from persecution which leaves him writhing in pain He struggles to survive remain alive keep cool and stay sane Involution and will get inside your head With colourful characters and poetic flair it is a scathing critique of modern warfare and all its gory bloodshed It s a novel which breaks new ground is sure to astound and really must be read Probably the best epic poem of the modern era Involution Evolution is fast paced masterpiece that will touch your soul

Poetics of Politics Sebastian M. Herrmann, Carolin Alice Hofmann, Katja Kanzler, Stefan Schubert, Frank Usbeck, 2015-04-22 This volume proposes the poetics of politics as an analytic angle to interrogate contemporary cultural production in the United States As recent scholarship has observed American literature and culture around the turn of the millennium while still deeply informed by the textual self consciousness of postmodernism are marked by a rekindled interest in matters of social concern This revived interest in politics is frequently read as a grand epochal transition Sidestepping such a logic of periodization this book points to the interplay between the textual and the political as a dynamic always locally specific that affords unique insights into the characteristics of the contemporary moment The sixteen case studies in this book explore this interplay across a wide range of media genres and modes Together they make visible a broad cultural concern with negotiating social relevance and textual self awareness that permeates and structures contemporary US popular culture

Screening Nostalgia Christine Sprengler,2009-01-01 In this fascinating in depth study of the impact of nostalgia on contemporary American cinema Christine Sprengler unpicks the history of the concept and explores its significance in theory and practice She offers a lucid analysis of the development of nostalgia in American society and culture navigating a path through the key debates and aligning herself with recent attempts to recuperate its critical potential This journey opens up the myriad permutations of nostalgia across visual and material culture and their interface with cinema with the 1950s emerging as a privileged moment Four case studies Sin City Far From Heaven The Aviator and The Good German analyse the ways in which aspects of visual design such as props costume and colour contribute to the nostalgic aesthetic allowing for both critical distance and emotion Written with verve style and impressive attention to detail Screening Nostalgia is an invaluable addition to existing scholarship It is also essential reading for anyone interested in the ways in which we access the past through cinema Pam Cook Professor Emerita in Film
