The Green Road:

The Green Road Anne Enright, 2015-05-11 One of the Guardian's 100 Best Books of the 21st Century With language so vibrant it practically has a pulse Enright makes an exquisitely drawn case for the possibility of growth love and transformation at any age People From internationally acclaimed author Anne Enright comes a shattering novel set in a small town on Ireland's Atlantic coast The Green Road is a tale of family and fracture compassion and selfishness a book about the gaps in the human heart and how we strive to fill them Spanning thirty years The Green Road tells the story of Rosaleen matriarch of the Madigans a family on the cusp of either coming together or falling irreparably apart As they grow up Rosaleen's four children leave the west of Ireland for lives they could have never imagined in Dublin New York and Mali West Africa In her early old age their difficult wonderful mother announces that she's decided to sell the house and divide the proceeds Her adult children come back for a last Christmas with the feeling that their childhoods are being erased their personal history bought and sold A profoundly moving work about a family's desperate attempt to recover the relationships they've lost and forge the ones they never had The Green Road is Enright's most mature accomplished and unforgettable novel to date

Open Content Licensing Lucie Guibault, Christina Angelopoulos, 2011 Although open content licenses only account for a fraction of all copyright licenses currently enforced in the world their introduction has had profound effects on the use and dissemination of information This book explores the theoretical underpinnings of these licenses and offers insight on the practical advantages and inconveniences of their use The essays collected here include an objective study of the principles of open content from the perspective of European intellectual property law as well as novel examinations of their possible implementation in different areas of the cultural or information industry

Five Irish women Emer Nolan, 2019-09-16 Five Irish Women is comprised of five interlinked portraits of exceptional Irish women from various fields literature journalism music politics who have achieved outstanding reputations since the 1960s Edna O'Brien Sinéad O'Connor Nuala O Faolain Bernadette McAliskey and Anne Enright Several of these could claim to be among the best known Irish people of their day The book looks at their achievements works of art in some cases but also life writing interviews and speeches and at their reception in Ireland and elsewhere shedding light on some of their shared preoccupations including equality sexuality and nationalism The main focus is on the ways in which these distinguished women make sense of their formative experiences as Irish people and how they in turn have been understood as representative figures in modern Ireland

Ageing in Irish Writing Heather Ingman, 2018-07-18 Age is a missing category in Irish literary criticism and this book is the first to explore a range of familiar and not so familiar Irish texts through a gerontological lens Drawing on the latest writing in humanistic critical and cultural gerontology this study examines the portrayal of ageing in fiction by Elizabeth Bowen Molly Keane Deirdre Madden Anne Enright Iris Murdoch John Banville John McGahern Norah Hoult and Edna O'Brien among others The chapters follow a logical thematic progression from efforts to hold back time to resisting the decline narrative of ageing solitary ageing versus ageing in the community and dementia and the world of the bedbound and dying One chapter analyses the changing portrayal of older people in the Irish short story Recent demographic shifts in Ireland have focused attention on an increasing ageing population making this study a timely intervention in the field of literary gerontology

Climate Science, Solutions and Services for Net Zero, Climate-Resilient Food Systems Pete Falloon, Aled Jones, Siemen Van Berkum, Stefan Kepinski, Mike Rivington, 2024-05-06 Food systems are both a major contributor to global greenhouse gas emissions and are strongly impacted by climate change and weather extremes Solutions to deliver net zero food systems therefore need to take climate impacts adaptation and resilience into account in order to ensure they are appropriate in a changing climate and do not conflict with adaptation goals In a similar way adaptation options for the food system must consider potential trade offs consequences and synergies with net zero and other objectives such as the Sustainable Development Goals Solutions for net zero climate resilient food systems will therefore require systematic interdisciplinary approaches across academia governments business NGOs and the public

The Wiltshire Archaeological and Natural History Magazine, 1922 Farming in Modern Irish Literature Nicholas Grene, 2021-08-05 This innovative study analyzes the range of representation of farming in Irish literature in the period since independence partition in 1922 as Ireland moved from a largely agricultural to a developed urban society In many different forms including poetry drama fiction and autobiography writers have made literary capital by looking back at their rural backgrounds even where those may be a generation back The first five chapters examine some of the key themes the impact of inheritance on family in the patriarchal system where there could only be one male heir the struggles for survival in the poorest regions of the West of Ireland the uses of childhood farming memories whether idyllic or traumatic and the representation of communities challenging the homogeneous idealizing images of the Literary Revival the impact of modernization on successive generations into the twenty first century The final three chapters are devoted to three major writers in whose work farming is central Patrick Kavanagh the small farmer who had to find an individual voice to express his own unique experience John McGahern in whose fiction the life of the farm is always posited as alternative to a rootless urban milieu and Seamus Heaney who reimagined his farming childhood in so many different modes throughout his career Farming in Modern Irish Literature yields original insights into the literary iconography of rural Ireland and its interplay with social and cultural history opening up fresh vistas on the achievements of Irish writers in different genres styles and historical eras
