enhance education in the 21st century Andragogical and Pedagogical Methods for Curriculum and Program Development Wang, Viktor, Bryan, Valerie C., 2014-03-31 Today's ever changing learning environment is characterized by the fast pace of technology that drives our society to move forward and causes our knowledge to increase at an exponential rate. The need for in depth research that is bound to generate new knowledge about curriculum and program development is becoming ever more relevant. Andragogical and Pedagogical Methods for Curriculum and Program Development offers an in depth description of key terms and concepts related to curriculum and program development for both faculty and students as well as program designers, instructional program developers, trainers, and librarians. Sport for Development and Peace Robert E. Baker, Craig Esherick, Pamela Hudson Baker, 2021-12-17 Sport has the incredible power to positively influence the world and it is with this in mind that the field of Sport for Development and Peace (SDP) has seen tremendous growth over the years. Sport can strengthen social ties, advance human rights, aid economic development, promote inclusion, and more. In Sport for Development and Peace: Foundations and Applications, internationally recognized SDP experts offer their insights, perspectives, and experiences on a range of topics within the field. The first part of the text focuses on the foundations of SDP, addressing its history, sociological aspects, specific goals such as development, inclusion, sport participation, and conflict resolution, and political and economic implications. It closes with an evaluation and assessment of SDP programs. The second part examines the application of SDP by providing examples and insights into government involvement in SDP, not for profit organizations, and corporate and for profit enterprises. Finally, the book concludes with a discussion of current trends and future implications of SDP. Written for current and future SDP managers, developers, and administrators, from the student to the professional, Sport for Development and Peace offers a comprehensive look at the many substantive and interconnected SDP topics in order to positively impact this fast growing field. Recreation as a Developmental Experience: Theory, Practice, Research Lawrence R. Allen, Robert J. Barcelona, 2011-07-26 It's not all fun and games. A growing body of research suggests that recreation activities can be powerful development contexts when they are properly framed and intentionally designed. This volume highlights much of that research, and the articles that follow provide ample evidence that well framed recreation activities and contexts can provide a range of positive developmental outcomes. Editors Lawrence R. Allen and Robert J. Barcelona draw on their own work in human and youth development and have assembled contributing authors who explore the importance of meaningful recreation and leisure experiences in the lives of youth and the value of recreation from a developmental perspective. Chapters focus on the developmental potential of specific recreation contexts and settings and provide research and evidence based strategies outlining the activities that best promote positive youth development. Finally, the volume demonstrates how recreation is being used to strengthen individual and community assets and its role as a contributor in addressing pressing social issues. This is the 130th volume of New Directions for Youth Development, the Jossey-Bass quarterly report series dedicated to bringing together everyone concerned with helping young people, including scholars, practitioners and people from different disciplines and professions The result is a unique resource presenting thoughtful multi faceted approaches to helping our youth develop into responsible stable well rounded citizens CAHPER Journal Canadian Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation,1982 The Development of the Historic Drama, Its Theory and Practice Louise Mallinckrodt Kueffner,1910 The Research Quarterly of the American Physical Education Association ,1930 *Otto E.
