event It includes a review of all previous encounters between the participants background information as well as all the games of the tournament deeply annotated by Euwe This fascinating account is finally available in English You are invited to follow Mikhail Botvinnik Vassily Smyslov Sam Reshevsky Paul Keres and Max Euwe as they battle for the title and the chess world starts its journey through the post World War II era and the beginning of the Soviet hegemony The World's Chess Championship, 1937 Alexander Alekhine,Max Euwe,Harry Golombek,1973-01-01 Bobby Fischer's Conquest of the World's Chess Championship Reuben Fine,1973 Carlsen-Anand 2013 Karsten Müller,2014-07-31 Magnus Carlsen Becomes World Champion It was the match that the chess world had been anticipating for several years Norway's wunderkind Magnus Carlsen had qualified as the official challenger for the world chess championship He was facing the reigning world champion Viswanathan Anand from India Would Anand's enormous match experience and years at the top be enough to stop the young Norwegian grandmaster Magnus was heavily favored and he did not disappoint With the help of German grandmaster Karsten Müller you can follow as the drama of the match played out in Chennai India He has annotated every game providing insight into the battle for the title To complement the author's presentation grandmaster Susan Polgar the oldest of the famous Polgar sisters shares her thoughts about the match in her foreword She was there for the entire struggle providing coverage for the Indian organizers and media Also included is a short history of the world chess championship as well as color photos taken during the match All in all this is another fine book on the world chess championship by Karsten Müller Topalov Kramnik 2006 World Chess Championship Veselin Topalov,Zhivko Ginchev,2010-04-28 This is Veselin Topalov's very personal account of his 2006 world championship match against the reigning world champion Vladimir Kramnik With the help of co author Zhivko Ginchev Topalov shares his thoughts hopes and fears as he fought for the most prestigious title in the chess world Alexander Alekhine Isaak Linder,Vladimir Linder,2016-03-16 THE WORLD CHESS CHAMPION SERIES The fourth title in the popular World Chess Champion Series is about the enigmatic Alexander Alekhine Tracing the Russian born champion from his youth in Russia through his assault on the chess Olympus and beyond this book paints a fresh portrait of the player who was one of the most spectacular tacticians ever to play the game The authors do not shy from confronting some of the less savory aspects of Alekhine's life They stick to the facts and present the issues surrounding the fourth world champion This book clears up some of the mysteries of Alekhine and provides some wonderful details There are so many intriguing aspects to Alekhine's life that it's easy to forget how much he dominated the chess world The Linders capture quite well the drama of Alekhine's world championship matches with Jos Capablanca and Max Euwe Even the blowouts against Efim Bogoljubow are well described Alekhine was the most peripatetic of champions and this book details many of his travels and simul tours Andy Soltis in his Foreword The Longest Game Jan Timman,2019-02-14 On September 10 1984 Anatoly Karpov and Garry Kasparov appeared on the stage of the Hall of Columns in Moscow for the first game of their match for the World Chess Championship The clash between the reigning champion and his brazen young challenger was highly anticipated but no one could have foreseen what was in store. In the next six years they would play five matches for the highest title and create one of the fiercest rivalries in sports history. The matches lasted a staggering total of 14 months and the two K s played 5540 moves in 144 games. The first match became front page news worldwide when after five months FIDE President Florencio Campomanes stepped in to stop the match citing exhaustion of both participants. A new match was staged and having learned valuable lessons 22-year-old Garry Kasparov became the youngest World Chess Champion in history. His win was not only hailed as a triumph of imaginative attacking chess but also as a political victory. The representative of perestroika had beaten the old champion, a symbol of Soviet stagnation. Kasparov defended his title in three more matches, all of them full of drama. Karpov remained a formidable opponent and the overall score was only 7371 in Kasparov's favour. In The Longest Game, Jan Timman returns to the Kasparov-Karpov matches. He chronicles the many twists and turns of this fascinating saga, including his behind-the-scenes impressions and takes a fresh look at the games.

Chess World Championships James H. Gelo, 1999. Charts or crosstables showing overall results precede each match or tournament. A lengthy bibliography and a detailed openings index complete the work.

World Chess Championship 1937 Alexander Alekhine, Max Euwe, 1993. Undoubtedly one of the greatest chess players of all time, Alexander Alekhine's play has influenced generations of players, including that of the current World Champion Gary Kasparov. In 1937 Alekhine faced one of the most difficult matches of his career to recover the title of World Champion from the Dutchman Max Euwe, to whom he surprisingly lost it two years before. This is Alekhine's own account of that match with game annotations from both combatants.

Wilhelm Steinitz Isaak Linder, Vladimir Linder, 2014-09-08. The World Chess Champion Series. The first official world champion Wilhelm Steinitz was a towering figure in the chess world in the last quarter of the 19th century. For nearly three decades he never lost a serious match. His opening innovations have resonated for more than a century. For example, for those who do not wish to meet the Ruy Lopez with 3 a6, the Steinitz Defense 3 d6 may still be one of the best ways to meet the Spanish Torture. In the early 1870s he formulated a positional approach that served as the foundation of modern chess. And his pioneering work on chess theory has been a major enduring influence since it was postulated. Moreover, if we think of his achievements as a writer, not just as a player, Steinitz was unique. Few authors before or since even come close. And none of his great successors could match his versatility and output. Isaak Linder is regarded as one of the preeminent chess historians of the modern era. He is the author of many books, including the widely acclaimed books in the World Chess Champions Series. Vladimir Linder is one of the best known sport journalists in Russia He is also the co author with his father Isaak Linder of many books including the widely acclaimed books in the World Chess Champion Series Carlsen-Anand Match for the World Chess Championship Raymond Keene, OBE,2013-12 Including all games from the World Chess Championship Match plus previous games between Anand and Carlsen and a ground breaking history of the World Chess Champions including representative games by each of the 19 prior holders of the world title All annotated by Grandmaster Raymond Keene OBE Includes 40 annotated chess games 243 chess diagrams plus puzzles and quizzes based upon the games of the match Jose Raul Capablanca Isaak Linder,2010-08-26 The name of Jose Raul Capablanca 1888 1942 the third world champion is indelibly inscribed in the annals of chess history Capablanca s technique intuition remarkably quick calculation and sense for elegant combinations made him the paragon of grandmasters during his lifetime At the peak of his career Capablanca was almost invincible each of his losses was regarded as a sensation His books articles and lucid annotations became instant classics As a star of the first magnitude Capablanca continues to influence the world of chess All the world champions of the late 20th century Botvinnik Smyslov Tal Petrosian Spassky Fischer Karpov and Kasparov have been influenced by Capablanca s original ideas Join Russian chess historians Isaak and Vladimir Linder as they take you on a journey exploring the life and games of the great Cuban world chess champion

World Chess Championship Raymond Keene, OBE,2009-11 The epic 1995 match for the World Chess Championship between Kasparov and Anand with all games deeply annotated by Grandmaster Raymond Keene World Chess Championship Candidates' Tournament - Budapest 1950 E. G. R. Cordingley,2006-04 The World Championship Candidates Tournament of 1950 marked a fresh phase in the history of the world title Hitherto the champion had chosen his challenger of course bearing in mind such pressures as public opinion and prize purses on offer Now after the interregnum caused by the death of Alekhine as incumbent in 1946 FIDE the World Chess Federation instituted a regular series of qualifying events to determine the rightful challenger to the chess throne Budapest 1950 was to be Bronstein s finest hour coming from behind he caught his imperturbable compatriot Boleslavsky at the finishing post and then squeezed ahead of him in the play off The notes to this great event which also featured such immortals as Smyslov Keres and Najdorf are by the British publishing pioneer Cordingley while the comments to the tie breaking match are furnished by the world champion of chess journalists Grandmaster emeritus Harry Golombek OBE based on his insights for the British Chess Magazine As we know Bronstein advanced to challenge Botvinnik for the world title but faltered at the final hurdle That epic clash is covered in the companion Hardinge Simpole volume World Chess Championship 1951 by William Winter and R G Wade ISBN 1843820846 This mighty clash between the top two Soviet Grandmasters was Botvinnik s first title defence after becoming World Champion in 1948 Amazingly the man who had dominated Soviet and World chess was only able to defend his title by the skin of his teeth after a most ferocious and determined onslaught from his youthful challenger David Bronstein The controversial 23rd game where a demoralised Bronstein may have resigned prematurely was the key to Botvinnik s ultimate success This book was written by two expert eye witnesses former British Champion and International Master William Winter and Bob Wade International Master vice president of FIDE the World Chess Federation and later to be awarded the OBE for services to chess and chess education Together these two acknowledged experts of the game give a thrilling first hand account of the intense intellectual drama of one of the most evenly fought battles in chess history Max Euwe Isaak Linder, Vladimir Linder, 2017-04-10 The Gentleman Champion The fifth book of the World Chess Champions series focuses on the life and career of the Dutchman Max Euwe This soft spoken professor of mathematics rocked the chess world in 1935 when he defeated the seemingly irresistible force Alexander Alekhine to become world champion Many chessplayers thought this was an upset of the first magnitude Hardly Euwe was at his prime and the best in the world at the time In fact Euwe posted a plus score against Alekhine in the four games they played between the 1935 and 1937 matches As noted by Andy Soltis in his foreword These pages are rich in detail and not just about Euwe There are extensive mini biographies of Alekhine Botvinnik Bogoljubow Spielmann Capablanca Paul Keres G za Mar czy Flohr Vera Menchik and R ti as well as less known players such as Edgard Colle Jan Hein Donner and Salo Landau The photos and drawings and those caricatures are also remarkable The venerable fifth world champion was also a first class arbiter author and chess diplomat As an author he is regarded as one of the two or three finest chess writers for the average player He was also president of the International Chess Federation FIDE at the time of the Fischer Spassky title match in 1972 Were it not for Euwe s persuasive patient handling of the difficult negotiations between the Russians and Americans it is very likely that the match would not have taken place at all Join Russian historians Isaak and Vladimir Linder as they take you on a journey exploring the life and games of the gentleman world champion Max Euwe
