Tiger in an African palace, and other thoughts about identification and transformation Richard Fardon, 2014-06-13 Tiger in an African palace collects eight essays about kinship and belonging that Richard Fardon wrote to complement his monographs on West Africa. The essays extend those book-length descriptions by pursuing their wider implications for theory in social anthropology, exploring the relationship between comparison and historical reconstruction and questioning the fit between personal, ethnic and cosmopolitan identities in contemporary West African nations. In an Introduction written specially for this Langaa collection, Richard Fardon retraces the career-long development of his preoccupation with concepts of identification and transformation and their relevance to understanding West African societies comparatively and historically.

Celtic Tiger in Collapse Peadar Kirby, 2010-02-17 Since the first edition there have been fundamental changes in the Irish growth model. The sudden collapse of the Irish economy in 2008 raises questions such as why the sudden and deep decline in economic growth. What are the prospects for a return to growth? Answering these questions and more, this book is the definitive work on the Celtic Tiger.
