The woman's daughter is not convinced this is simply a side effect of surgery and decides to investigate the cause behind the mystery. Through her detective work she discovers a chapter of her mother's life that has been hidden from her family. She learns from her mother's older brother that his sister spent her early childhood and adolescence in Chiu Chow away from her family to escape war and starvation. The story's theme is about making life choices. What happened in this woman's past that is now blocking her language ability? Her daughter intends to find out the buried secrets in the fascinating novel Mother's Tongue: A Story of Forgiving and Forgetting by the author Susanna Ho, who teaches full time at a university in Hong Kong. Lumber Manufacturer and Dealer, 1925 Great Sky Woman Steven Barnes, 2009-03-24. The epic story of how primitive humans without words or machines set in motion civilization's long winding journey to the present. Thirty thousand years ago in the heart of the African continent and in the shadow of Mount Kilimanjaro lived the Ibandi who for generations nurtured their ancient traditions and met survival's daily struggle with quiet faith in their gods. T Cori, an abandoned girl, and Frog Hopping, a boy possessing a gift that is also a curse, are two of the Ibandi's chosen ones. Though they live in different encampments, Frog and T Cori are linked through the mysterious medicine woman known as Stillshadow, who has sensed in them a destiny apart from others. Through the years and on their separate paths, T Cori's and Frog's fates entwine as an inevitable disaster approaches from the south from the very god they worship. For as long as there have been mountains, sky, and savannah, there has been a home for the Ibandi. Now in the face of an enemy beyond anything spoken of even in legend, they must ask their god face to face: Do we remain or do we depart?
