War Broadcasts:

Peter von Zahn's Cold War Broadcasts to West Germany Eli Nathans,2017-08-08 This book examines the pioneering radio broadcasts and television documentaries about the United States made in the 1950s by the influential West German journalist Peter von Zahn Part intellectual biography part analysis of significant debates in West Germany part study of an intensive encounter with the United States the book helps explain the transformation of postwar West Germany As a soldier in the Wehrmacht in World War II Zahn held the militantly elitist views typical of young men in Germany s educated middle class He reconsidered these positions in his postwar broadcasts At the same time he coldly assessed the capacity of the United States to win the Cold War His broadcasts examined McCarthyism the African American civil rights movement and numerous aspects of American culture and politics Zahn s broadcasts were one important voice in West German debates about the defects and virtues of modern democratic societies and especially of the United States debates whose intensity reflected recent German experiences with the failure of the Weimar Republic and with Nazism Zahn s analyses of the United States remain startlingly relevant today Radio Wars Linda Risso,2017-10-02 During the Cold War radio broadcasting played an important role in the ideological confrontation between East and West As archival documents gathered in this volume reveal radio broadcasting was among the most pressing concerns of contemporary information agencies These broadcasts could penetrate the Iron Curtain and directly address the enemy Radio was equally important in keeping sustained levels of support among the home public and the public of friendly nations In the early Cold War in particular listeners in the West had to be persuaded of the need for higher defence spending levels and a policy of containment Later even if other media and in particular television had become more important radio continued to be used widely The chapters gathered here investigate both the institutional history of the radio broadcasting corporations in the East and in the West and their relationship with other propaganda agencies of the time They examine the off air politics of radio broadcasting from the choice of theme to the selection of speakers singers and music pieces The key issue tackled by contributors is the problem of measuring the impact of and qualifying the success of information policies and propaganda programmes produced during the Cultural Cold War This book was originally published as a special issue of Cold War History Black Prisoner of War James A. Daly, Lee Bergman,2000 Among the few autobiographical works about Vietnam by a black author this memoir by Daly 1946-98 a Jehovah s Witness who renounced the US position after five years in the infamous Hanoi Hilton controversially explores race relations and the less than courageous The introduction provides context Originally published by Bobbs Merrill as A Hero s Welcome Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Broadcasting Samuel Lionel Rothafel, Raymond Francis Yates,1925 Summary of World Broadcasts British Broadcasting Corporation. Monitoring Service,1990 Radio Broadcast ,1926 Summary of World Broadcasts ,1999 American Soldiers Peter S. Kindsvatter,2003 Some warriors are drawn to the thrill of combat and find it the defining moment of their lives Others fall victim to fear exhaustion impaired reasoning and despair This book synthesizes the wartime experiences of American soldiers from the doughboys of World War I to the grunts of Vietnam Focusing on both soldiers and marines it draws on histories and memoirs oral histories psychological and sociological studies and even fiction to show that their experiences remain fundamentally the same regardless of the enemy terrain training or weaponry Opportunity ,1943 Broadcast John Mackworth,1925 Broadcasting, Broadcast Advertising ,1943-07 "This is Berlin" William Lawrence Shirer,1999 Through his broadcasts for Edward R Murrow on CBS Radio William Shirer was a masterful chronicler of the events in Europe that led up to World War II The reportage in This Is Berlin offers rich insights into the period before the darkest days descended and World War II began With chilling immediacy these broadcasts take the reader to the front providing flashpoints of the imminent war in the words of America s most trusted correspondent An introduction by noted historian John Keegan and a preface by Shirer s daughter Inga Shirer Dean serve to put Shirer s life and work into context BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Broadcast ,1922 The Crown Colonist ,1939 The Journal of Education ,1941 Radio Goes to War Gerd Horten,2002-02-06 By focusing on the medium of radio during World War II Horten has provided us with a window into an important change in radio broadcasting that has previously been ignored by historians The depth of research the book s contribution to our understanding of radio and the war make Radio Goes to War an outstanding work Lary May author of The Big Tomorrow Hollywood and the Politics of the American Way Radio broadcasting and its impact on American life still remains a neglected area of our national history Radio Goes to War demonstrates conclusively how short sighted that omission is As we enter what is sure to be another era of contested claims of government control over freedom of speech the controversies and compromises of wartime broadcasting sixty years ago provide an ominous example of difficult decisions to be made in the future The alliance of big business advertising and wartime propoganda that Horten so convincingly illuminates takes on a heightened significance especially as this relationship has tightened in the last several decades When radio and television go to war again will they follow the same course This is cautionary reading for our new century Michele Hilmes author of Radio Voices American Broadcasting 1922 1952 Radio World ,1922 Between War and Peace Florence Brewer Boeckel,1928 Broadcasting Yearbook ,1941 South Dakota Library Bulletin ,1930
