Rebuilding the Church on a New Foundation Gerald Robinson,2020-01-09 Vast changes are sweeping over society We relate to one another in ways unheard of a generation ago and the church too must change if it is going to continue to serve We are not the same people for whom Victorian churches were designed yet that is the way most present day churches are configured No wonder we are in trouble We need to go back to our first century roots and from there to be born anew Rebuilding the Church on a New Foundation responds to this need by offering guidance to a congregation that wishes to enhance the worship of the church to re focus its worship space to serve its community and to welcome the stranger Here is an exciting and engaging journey one that will give the church the potential to survive into the next century The Decline of the West: Form and actuality Oswald Spengler,Charles Francis Atkinson,1928 Contains Spengler s well known work on the history of and the rise and fall of various civilizations Form and actuality Oswald Spengler,1926 Journal of the Society of Biblical Literature and Exegesis ,1904 Gleanings and Memoranda ,1912 Journal of Biblical Literature ,1903 Some Elements of Forcefulness in the Comparisons of Jesus Benjamin Willard Robinson,1904

Kierkegaard's Theology of Encounter David Lappano,2016-12-22 Kierkegaard s Theology of Encounter provides a theoretical framework that brings the unity of Kierkegaard s middle period into relief David Lappano analyses Kierkegaard s writings between 1846 and 1852 when the socially constructive dimension of his thought comes to prominence involving two dialectical aspects of religiousness identified by Kierkegaard they are the edifying and the polemical How these come together and get worked out in the lives of individuals form the basis of what can be called a Kierkegaardian social praxis

Lappano argues that the tension between the edifying and the polemical can be coherently maintained in a communicative life that is also characteristic of a militant faith This militant faith and life is presented as a critical guard against absolutisms fundamentalisms and intellectual aloofness but the militant individual is also utterly dependent in need of edification and critique and therefore chooses the risk of encountering others seeking relationships out of a commitment to the development of people and communities in co operation Therefore not only does this dialectic provide readers with an important theoretical framework for understanding Kierkegaard s middle period it is also a valuable resource for a constructive analysis of active social living suitable for theology in the twenty first century
