View from Here Franklin Burroughs, 2024-11-29 The essays in Franklin Burroughs new collection many of which were published in Down East magazine as part of Burroughs Room With a View column cast a wide net over the land water and wildlife of his adopted state Maine Moving casually between current events historic conservation natural observation and solid research these essays give Burroughs unique perspective to broad range of Maine's natural world The View from Here R. Jay Wallace, 2018-02-06 Must we always later regret actions that were wrong for us to perform at the time Can there ever be good reason to affirm things in the past that we know were unfortunate In this original work of moral philosophy R. Jay Wallace shows that the standpoint from which we look back on our lives is shaped by our present attachments to persons to the projects that imbue our lives with meaning and to life itself Through a distinctive affirmation dynamic these attachments commit us to affirming the necessary conditions of their objects The result is that we are sometimes unable to regret events and circumstances that were originally unjustified or otherwise somehow objectionable Wallace traces these themes through a range of examples A teenage girl makes an ill advised decision to conceive a child but her love for the child once it has been born makes it impossible for her to regret that earlier decision The painter Paul Gauguin abandons his family to pursue his true artistic calling and eventual life project in Tahiti which means he cannot truly regret his abdication of familial responsibility The View from Here offers new interpretations of these classic cases challenging their treatment by Bernard Williams and others Another example is the bourgeois predicament we are committed to affirming the regrettable social inequalities that make possible the expensive activities that give our lives meaning Generalizing from such situations Wallace defends the view that our attachments inevitably commit us to affirming historical conditions that we cannot regard as worthy of being affirmed a modest form of nihilism The View from Here Clair Verway, 2003-10 The View From Here is a poetry collection The unique aspect of this collection is an appendix which offers explanations of the source for each poem and the considerations given to the form In addition a teacher's guide with suggested study questions will be made available making the book an instant poetry lesson These lessons are intended to be ready made so a teacher may use them on short notice such as for a substitute or as part of a larger poetry unit The American Travellers' Guides William Pembroke Fetridge, 1881 Hania Henryk Sienkiewicz, 1897 The Novels and Tales of Robert Louis Stevenson Robert Louis Stevenson, Lloyd Osbourne, Fanny Van de Grift Stevenson, William Ernest Henley, 1896 Hunter-trader-trapper, 1929 Diary of a Journey to England in the Years 1761-1762, by Count Frederick Kielmansegge; Tr. by Countess Kielmansegg Friedrich Graf von Kielmansegge, 1902 The vade mecum; or, A, B, C guide to Denmark, Sweden, and Norway, by Ttenrub Elohta Athole Burnett, 1875 History of the Berwickshire Naturalists' Club Berwickshire Naturalists' Club (Scotland), 1892 Contains its Proceedings Munsey's Magazine, 1900 Report...
