Values in Heritage Management Erica Avrami, Susan Macdonald, Randall Mason, David Myers, 2019-12-03 Bringing together leading conservation scholars and professionals from around the world this volume offers a timely look at values based approaches to heritage management Over the last fifty years conservation professionals have confronted increasingly complex political economic and cultural dynamics This volume with contributions by leading international practitioners and scholars reviews how values based methods have come to influence conservation takes stock of emerging approaches to values in heritage practice and policy identifies common challenges and related spheres of knowledge and proposes specific areas in which the development of new approaches and future research may help advance the field The free online edition of this open access book is available at www.getty.edu/publications/heritagemanagement and includes zoomable illustrations Also available are free PDF EPUB and Kindle MOBI downloads of the book

Agency, Freedom and Choice Constanze Binder, 2019-03-29 In this book Binder shows that at the heart of the most prominent arguments in favour of value neutral approaches to overall freedom lies the value freedom has for human agency and development Far from leading to the adoption of a value neutral approach however ascribing importance to freedom's agency value requires one to adopt a refined value based approach Binder employs an axiomatic framework in order to develop such an approach She shows that a focus on freedom's agency value has far reaching consequences for existing results in the freedom ranking literature it requires one to move beyond a person's given all things considered preferences to the values underlying a person's preference formation Furthermore it requires as Binder argues one to account only for those differences between choice options which really matter to people Binder illustrates the implications of her analysis for the evaluation of public policy and human development with the capability approach only if sufficient importance is ascribed to freedom's agency value can the capability approach keep its promises

Social Determinants of Health in Europe Adrian Bonner, 2024-12-18 Drawing on the perspectives of women and children displaced from Ukraine as well as local authority policy makers and service providers this book provides a unique view of the direct and indirect consequences of war in Europe Part of the Social Determinants of Health series this book reviews the socioeconomic challenges faced by the UK and other European countries and suggests ways that these wicked issues should be addressed It is essential reading for local authorities national governments and humanitarian organisations

Corruption Prevention and Governance in Hong Kong Ian Scott, Ting Gong, 2018-12-07 This book analyses central questions in the continuing debate about success factors in corruption prevention and the efficacy and value of anti corruption agencies ACAs How do ACAs become valued within a polity What challenges must they overcome What conditions account for their success and failure What contributions can corruption prevention make to good governance And in what areas might they have little or no effect on the quality of governance With these questions in mind the authors examine the experience of Hong Kong's Independent Commission Against Corruption

ICAC widely regarded as one of the few successful examples of an ACA The book is grounded in an analysis of ICAC documents and surveys the authors survey of social attitudes towards corruption in Hong Kong and interviews with former officials OECD Public Governance Reviews OECD Integrity Review of Mexico Taking a Stronger Stance Against Corruption OECD,2017-03-30 This report applies the 2017 Recommendation of the Council on Public Integrity assessing Mexico s evolving public integrity system the extent to which new reforms cultivate a culture of integrity across the public sector and the effectiveness of increasingly stringent accountability mechanisms Literature and Science as Modes of Expression G.F.
