The Modern Functional Building:

The Modern Functional Building Adolf Behne,1996 Bruno Taut and Walter Gropius organized the Arbeitsrat für Kunst Work council on the arts Behne would also become an early critic of both the Werkbund and the Bauhaus Written in 1923 Behne's Modern Functional Building clarifies the concepts of German Modernism at their very inception especially the crucial distinctions between functionalism rationalism and utilitarianism In this text Behne advocates a functionalism that is not technocentric but is comparable

Participatory Design and Self-building in Shared Urban Open Spaces Carolin Mees,2018-04-12 The book investigates the development of community gardens with self built structures which have existed as a shared public open space land use form in New York City's low come neighborhoods like the South Bronx since the 1970s These gardens have continued to be part of the urban landscape until today despite conflicting land use interests changing residents groups and contradictory city planning Both community gardens and self built structures are created in a participatory design and self built effort by urban residents and are an expression of the individual gardeners preferences their cultural background and the decisions made by the managing residents group in regards to the needs of their neighborhood Ultimately community gardens with self built structures are an expression of the people's will to commonly use this land for open and enclosed structures next to their homes in the city and need to be included in future urban planning

Machines for Living Victoria Rosner,2020 Machines for Living shows how the modernization of the home led to profound changes in domestic life and relied on a set of emergent concepts including standardization scientific method functionalism and efficiency science that form the basis of literary modernism and stand at the confluence of modernism and modernity

Photography, Architecture, and the Modern Italian Landscape Lindsay Harris,2024-11-19 Photography Architecture and the Modern Italian Landscape explores the impact of photography at a pivotal moment in Italian architecture and culture focusing on the period between 1910 and the mid 1970s The book analyzes architectural photographs taken by Italian cultural figures who helped transform the Italian landscape into what we know today This study charts the oscillation of Italians ideas about what progress signified For example the book demonstrates that for writers and artists familiar with ancient ideas about civilization in 1910 the Roman countryside exemplified the contradictions inherent in primitivism On the one hand their photographs praised the region's primordial beauty yet their images condemned the crudeness of local living conditions More broadly it traces the history of primitivism and photography in Italy to show how cultural leaders alarm at the nation's pre modern living conditions their aspiration to modernize them and their grasp of photography to catalyze the process helped forge the modern Italian landscape its monuments housing infrastructure and natural environments At the same time it explores a vibrant period in photographic history when the advent of photographic reproduction as a commercial process developed into a medium with its own visual style capable of shaping ideas about modernity This new image making and reproduction technology empowered Italy's cultural leaders not simply to represent the Italian landscape through photography but to determine how it developed Of interest to researchers and students from a range of disciplines modern architecture photography and Italian studies this book demonstrates the power of art to transform society and to reformulate our ideas of progress Modern Sanitation and Building Maintenance ,1957

Architectural Theory, Volume 2 Harry Francis Mallgrave,Christina Contandriopoulos,2008-08-11 This second volume of the landmark Architectural Theory anthology surveys the development of architectural theory from the Franco Prussian war of 1871 until the end of the twentieth century The entire two volume anthology follows the full range of architectural literature from classical times to present transformations An ambitious anthology bringing together over 300 classic and contemporary essays that survey the key developments and trends in architecture Spans the period from 1871 to 2005 from John Ruskin and the arts and crafts movement in Great Britain through to the development of Lingang New City and the creation of a metropolis in the East China sea Organized thematically featuring general and section introductions and headnotes to each essay written by a renowned expert on architectural theory Places the work of starchitects like Koolhaas Eisenman and Lyn alongside the work of prominent architectural critics offering a balanced perspective on current debates Includes many hard to find texts and works never previously translated into English Alongside Volume I An Anthology from Vitruvius to 1870 creates a stunning overview of architectural theory from early antiquity to the twenty first century
