Reading Time in the Long Poem Tess Somervell, 2022-10-19 Reading Time tells the story of the long poem in the long eighteenth century as it navigated between narrative and description progress and digression and time and space The long poem emerged between 1660 and 1850 as a medium in which poets could shape and reshape time Analysing Milton's Paradise Lost Thomson's The Seasons and Wordsworth's The Prelude this study reveals how these poets used both the content and form of their long poems to intervene in contemporary debates about the temporalities of free will nature and identity Reading Time argues that they use the figure of the prospect the extended landscape to imagine time as a space onto which different causal configurations could be mapped In turn readers have approached these poems as both temporal and spatial forms as linear processes and as static structures demonstrating how the long poem can shape a reader s own experience of time Encyclopedia of American Poetry: The Nineteenth Century Eric L. Haralson,2014-01-21 With contributions from over 100 scholars the Encyclopedia of American Poetry The Nineteenth Century provides essays on the careers works and backgrounds of more than 100 nineteenth century poets It also provides entries on specialized categories of twentieth century verse such as hymns folk ballads spirituals Civil War songs and Native American poetry Besides presenting essential factual information each entry amounts to an in depth critical essay and includes a bibliography that directs readers to other works by and about a particular poet

Century Readings for a Course in English Literature John William Cunliffe,James Francis Augustin Pyre,Karl Young,James Francis Augustine Pyre,1915 The topic of loss and separation in poetry Hanno Frey,2003-03-26 Seminar paper from the year 2000 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 2.0 University of Hamburg FB Anglistik course Seminar II language English abstract As the title suggests this term paper deals with the topic of loss and separation in poetry The texts which have been chosen as relevant material are the poems THE BREAK AWAY by Anne Sexton SHE IS AWAY by Kenneth Rexroth and RIVER ROAD by Stanley Kunitz¹ These three poems center around the same problem but they differ not only in the perspective of the lyrical I² but also in certain stylistic devices It is the aim of this term paper to point some of these differences out and to describe the concept of loss and separation i e how loss and separation are perceived in each case by the lyrical I In this context it should be mentioned that not all relevant elements of each poem can be taken into consideration doing so would go beyond the scope of this term paper³ Consequently the main idea is to present some basic ideas In some cases it will be necessary to look at certain parts of a poem in great detail There will also be some autobiographical references to the lives of the authors mainly to Anne Sexton and Kenneth Rexroth as only very few material has been available about Stanley Kunitz In doing so the reader must be aware of the fact that the poems do surely not present totally autobiographical experiences nevertheless it seems to be quite impossible to strictly keep these out of them
