The Making Of Alien Resurrection:

Making of Alien Resurrection Andrew Murdock, 1997-11-28 Alien Resurrection marks the fourth installment in the Alien science fiction film series. The story takes us into deep space where the USS Auriga is the venue for clandestine scientific experiments in the name of medical advancement. The arrival of the Betty, a rock n roll spacecraft with a cargo of live hosts and a volatile crew, plants the seeds for confirmation and conflict. Sigourney Weaver returns as the genetically corrupted Lieutenant Ripley and is joined by Winona Ryder as the auton robot Call and an eclectic crew of renegade space pirates in a quest to find meaning in a world that seeks to tamper with the lethal and mysterious alien life form. Director Jean Pierre Jeunet, who generated the abstract and visually arresting films Delicatessen and The City of Lost Children, takes creative license to establish another uniquely stylized futuristic vision. The Making of Alien Resurrection is a celebration of the creative process involved in the completion of a major feature film. Join the director, cinematographer, designers, editors, visual effects consultants, special effects technicians, artists, sculptors, and a myriad of other talented people in a collaborative journey to fabricate an idiosyncratic perception of the future.

Focus On: 100 Most Popular 1990s Science Fiction Films Wikipedia contributors, Horror in Space Michele Brittany, 2017-11-21 In sharp contrast to many 1960s science fiction films with idealized views of space exploration, Ridley Scott's Alien (1979) terrified audiences depicting a harrowing and doomed deep space mission. The Alien films launched a new generation of horror set in the great unknown, inspiring filmmakers to take Earth-bound franchises like Leprechaun and Friday the 13th into space. This collection of new essays examines the space horror subgenre with a focus on such films as Paul W. S. Anderson's Event Horizon, Duncan Jones' Moon, Mario Bava's Planet of the Vampires, and John Carpenter's Ghosts of Mars. Contributors discuss how filmmakers explored the concepts of the final girl survivor, the uncanny valley, the isolationism of space travel, religion, and supernatural phenomena.

Focus On: 100 Most Popular United States National Film Registry Films Wikipedia contributors, Alien Legacies Nathan Abrams, Gregory Frame, 2023 As a media franchise, the film Alien has enjoyed a large and devoted fanbase for over four decades. This new book engages with the franchise in all its forms, not just the original film but its sequels, prequels, and multimedia offshoots like comic books, audiobooks, action figures, and videogames, to offer fresh perspectives on the Alien universe. What is it about Alien that still fascinates audiences, and why does it still matter so many years after its birth?

Jean-Pierre Jeunet Elizabeth Ezra, 2010-10-01 This is the first book on Jean Pierre Jeunet, the popular and critically acclaimed director of films such as Amélie, Delicatessen, A Very Long Engagement, Alien Resurrection, and City of Lost Children. Jeunet's work exemplifies Europe's engagement with Hollywood while, at the same time, making him a figurehead of the critically overlooked, specifically French tradition of the cinema of the fantastic. Having garnered both commercial success and critical esteem in genres such as science fiction, fantasy, romantic comedy, and the war epic, Jeunet's work nevertheless engages with key aspects of French history and contemporary French culture. This study analyzes the director's major films.

including those he made with Marc Caro and his early short works Elizabeth Ezra brings a new perspective to the study of Jeunet's work uncovering instances of repressed historical trauma involving France's role in Algeria and the Second World War The book includes a commentary by Jeunet himself on his career and corpus of films Bowker's Complete Video Directory, 1999, 1999 Film International, 2008 Film Review, 2006 The Cumulative Book Index, 1930 Cinefantastique, 2005 Technoscience in Contemporary Film Aylish Wood, 2002 This book provides an accessible introduction to contemporary ideas about technoscience and broadens the debates about images of science and technology beyond the science fiction and horror genres into an alternative body of films fictions of technoscience DVD Confidential 2 Marc Saltzman, 2003 Locate easter eggs hidden bloopers deleted scenes secret alternative endings hidden interview clips video games little known DVD Rom content and more The Complete Aliens Paul Sammon, 1998-04 Sammon takes a behind the scenes look at the making of Alien Resurrection traveling back through film history to the conception of the original movie and its multimillion dollar grossing sequels 16 page color insert The Publishers Weekly, 1997 The Cinematic Life of the Gene Jackie Stacey, 2010-04-02 A leading feminist film theorist argues that the cinema animates the tropes of and enacts our fears about cloning and other kinds of genetic engineering The Ridley Scott Encyclopedia Laurence Raw, 2009-09-28 From his first feature film The Duellists to his international successes Alien Blade Runner Thelma and Louise Black Hawk Down Gladiator and American Gangster Ridley Scott has directed some of the most compelling films of the last 30 years Apart from his work as a film director Scott has engaged in a vast range of activities including that as a designer producer film mogul and advertising executive The Ridley Scott Encyclopedia is the first book that focuses on all aspects of his work in a wide ranging career that spans nearly 50 years The entries in this encyclopedia focus on all aspects of his work and are divided into four categories The first focuses on Ridley Scott's work as a director encompassing his feature films from The Duellists to Body of Lies as well as his work in television including commercials The second category focuses on the people who have been involved in Scott's projects including actors directors producers designers writers and other creative personnel The third focuses on general thematic issues raised in Scott's work such as gender construction political issues and geographical locations Finally the encyclopedia incorporates entries on films by other directors who have influenced Scott's approach to his work as a director or producer Each entry is followed by a bibliography of published sources both in print and online making this the most comprehensive reference on Scott's body of work Hades Henry Constable, 1893 Contemporary Theatre, Film and Television Thomas Riggs, 2007-03 Biographical reference providing information on individuals active in the theatre film and television industries Covers not only performers directors writers and producers but also behind the scenes specialists such as designers managers choreographers technicians composers executives dancers and critics from the United States Canada Great Britain and the world Blueprint, 1997
