Helsinger,Robin Ann Sheets,William R. Veeder,1983      The Woman Question Edward B. Aveling,Eleanor Marx Aveling,1887      The American New Woman Revisited Martha H. Patterson,2008 In North America between 1894 and 1930 the rise of the New Woman sparked controversy on both sides of the Atlantic and around the world As she demanded a public voice as well as private fulfillment through work education and politics American journalists debated and defined her Who was she and where did she come from Was she to be celebrated as the agent of progress or reviled as a traitor to the traditional family Over time the dominant version of the American New Woman became typified as white educated and middle class the suffragist progressive reformer and bloomer wearing bicyclist By the 1920s the jazz dancing flapper epitomized her Yet she also had many other faces Bringing together a diverse range of essays from the periodical press of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Martha H Patterson shows how the New Woman differed according to region class politics race ethnicity and historical circumstance In addition to the New Woman s prevailing incarnations she appears here as a gun wielding heroine imperialist symbol assimilationist icon entrepreneur socialist anarchist thief vamp and eugenicist Together these readings redefine our understanding of the New Woman and her cultural impact Gender and Judging Ulrike Schultz, Gisela Shaw, 2013-07-10 Does gender make a difference to the way the judiciary works and should work Or is gender blindness a built in prerequisite of judicial objectivity If gender does make a difference how might this be defined These are the key questions posed in this collection of essays by some 30 authors from 15 countries The Woman Citizen, 1918 The Woman Voter Florence Woolston, Mary Ritter Beard, 1915 The Woman Question: Defining voices Elizabeth K. Ishay, 2022-11-01 The third edition of The Human Rights Reader presents a variety of new primary documents and readings and elaborates the exploration of rights in the areas of race gender refugees climate Artificial Intelligence drones and cyber security and nationalism and Internationalism In the wake of the Covid 19 crisis it addresses human rights challenges reflected in and posed by global health inequities Each part of the reader corresponds to five historical phases in the history of human rights and explores the arguments debates and issues of inclusiveness central to those eras This edition is the most comprehensive and up to date collection of essays speeches and documents from historical and contemporary sources all of which are placed in context with Micheline Ishay's substantial introduction to the Reader as a whole and context setting introductions to each part and chapter New to the Third Edition 60 new readings and documents cover subjects ranging from human rights in the age of globalization and populism debates of the rights of citizens versus those of refugees and immigrants transgender rights the new Jim Crow and the future of human rights as they relate to digital surveillance the pandemic and bioengineering Part I has been reorganized into three chapters the Secular Tradition Asian and African Religions and Traditions and the Monotheistic Religions Part V has been significantly updated and expanded with the addition of an entirely new chapter Debating the Future of Human Rights Each of the six parts in the book is preceded by an editorial introduction and in four of the parts a separate selection providing the reader with a general background on the history and themes represented in the readings that follow Each part and several chapters conclude with new Questions for Discussion authored by the volume editor An extensive new online resource includes 62 key human rights documents ranging from the Magna Carta to the United Nations Glasgow Climate Pact Woman's World, 1965 The Coupling Convention : Sex, Text, and Tradition in Black Women's Fiction Ann duCille Associate Professor of English and African American Studies Wesleyan University, 1993-10-19 What does the tradition of marriage mean for people who have historically been deprived of its legal status Generally thought of as a convention of the white middle class the marriage plot has received little attention from critics of African American literature In this study Ann duCille uses texts such as Nella Larsen s Quicksand 1928 and Zora Neale Hurston s Their Eyes Were Watching God 1937 to demonstrate that the African American novel like its European and Anglo American counterparts has developed around the marriage plot what she calls the coupling convention Exploring the relationship between racial ideology and literary and social conventions duCille uses the coupling convention to trace the historical development of the African American women s novel She demonstrates the ways in which black women appropriated this novelistic device as a means of expressing and reclaiming their own identity More than just a study of the marriage tradition in black women s fiction however The Coupling Convention takes up and takes on many different meanings of tradition It challenges the notion of a single black literary tradition or of a single black feminist literary canon grounded in specifically black female language and experience as it explores the ways in which white and black male and female mainstream and marginalized traditions and canons have influenced and cross fertilized each other Much more than a period study The Coupling Convention spans the period from 1853 to 1948 addressing the vital questions of gender subjectivity race and the canon that inform literary study today In this original work duCille offers a new paradigm for reading black women s fiction
