Woman And Modernity:

Women's Experience of Modernity, 1875-1945 Ann L. Ardis, Leslie W. Lewis, 2003-05-22 A collection of essays on women's history and literary production at the turn of the twentieth century that centers the feminine phenomena Analyzing such cultural practices as selling and shopping political and social activism urban field work and rural labor radical discourses on feminine sexuality and literary and artistic experimentation this volume contributes to the rich vein of current feminist scholarship on the gender of modernism and challenges the assumption that modernism rose naturally or inevitably to the forefront of the cultural landscape at the turn of the twentieth century During this period women's experience was a rallying cry for feminists a unifying cause that allowed women to work together to effect social change and make claims for women's rights However it also proved to be a source of great divisiveness among women for claims about its universality quickly unraveled to reveal the classism racism and Eurocentrism of various feminist activities and organizations The essays in this volume examine both literary and non literary writings of Jane Addams Djuna Barnes Toru Dutt Radclyffe Hall H D Pauline Hopkins Emma Dunham Kelley Amy Levy Alice Meynell Bram Stoker Ida B Wells Rebecca West and others Instead of focusing exclusively or even centrally on modernism and literature these essays address a broad array of textual materials from political pamphlets to gynecology textbooks as they investigate women's responses to the rise of commodity capitalism middle class women's entrance into the labor force the welfare state's invasion of the working class home and the intensified eroticization of racial and class differences

Women, Compulsion, Modernity Jennifer L. Fleissner, 2004-06-14 Life in America at the turn of the 19th century has been characterised as distinctly male orientated Fleissner disputes this popular view uncovers a new understanding of the era through naturalism the prominent literary style of the time The Gender of Modernity Rita Felski, 1995-08-21 In an exploration of the complex relations between women and the modern this work challenges conventional male centred theories of modernity It examines the gendered meanings of such notions as nostalgia consumption feminine writing the popular sublime evolution revolution and perversion

Gynesis Alice Jardine, 2019-06-30 Jardine's command of French theory is awesome Even more impressive is the fact that she manages to delve into the subject without ever losing sight of certain impertinent American questions Jane Gallop Department of French and Italian Miami University Gynesis from the Greek gyn signifying woman and sis designating process In her book Alice Jardine charts the territories and landscapes of contemporary French thought focusing on such concepts as woman and the feminine and relating them to the problem of modernity Interdisciplinary in her approach she confronts and addresses important psychoanalytic philosophical and fictional texts that are largely the work of male writers In Part One Jardine charts the general boundaries of what she describes as the problematization of woman and in Part Two she explores three major topologies of contemporary French thought the breakdown of the Cartesian Subject the default of Representation and the demise of Man's Truth Part Three analyzes the work of Jacques Lacan Jacques Derrida and Gilles Deleuze three major French thinkers who according to Jardine are deeply involved in the process of gynesis and discusses their readings of such writers as Marguerite Duras Maurice Blanchot and Michel Tournier A final section turns to the question of comparativism by discussing male American and French writers those self consciously exploring the conceptual territories mapped in Part Two Looking at her texts from the vantage point of an American feminist Jardine voices the hope that feminism and modernity will not become mutually exclusive and by the same token that feminism will not grow less concerned with the question of female stereotyping A brilliant and engaging book that will undoubtedly provoke controversy Gynesis should find a large audience among students of contemporary thought including feminists literary and cultural critics and philosophers

Woman and Modernity Bidy Martin,1991 Questions of self representation Salome Ree and Nietzsche Salome as Nietzsche analyst Salome on Ibsen s female characters Femininity modernity and feminism Femininity in Salome s fiction Salome Narcissus and Freud

Women in the Metropolis Katharina von Ankum,1997-02-12 A landmark work of German cultural studies The richness of the material is dazzling each of the essays opens up new areas of scholarly inquiry and connects in surprising and illuminating ways with other essays in the volume Maria Tatar author of Lustmord These are thought provoking readings of the New Woman s encounters with modernity in Weimar culture Atina Grossmann author of Reforming Sex

Women and Modernity in Weimar Germany Vibeke Rützou Petersen,2001-06 This book focuses on the popular fiction of Weimar Germany and explores the relationship between women the texts they read and the society in which they lived A complex picture emerges that shows women talking center stage not only in the fiction but also in the reality that shaped its fictional representations One of the author s significant conclusions is that it was the growing strength of female subjectivity its strong positioning and its insistent claim to visibility that occupied the imaginations and fears of Weimar culture and contributed in an important way to the crisis that afflicted the Weimar Republic

Remaking Women Lila Abu-Lughod,1998-07-01 Contrary to popular perceptions newly veiled women across the Middle East are just as much products and symbols of modernity as the upper and middle class women who courageously took off the veil almost a century ago To make this point these essays focus on the woman question in the Middle East most particularly in Egypt and Iran especially at the turn of the century when gender became a highly charged nationalist issue tied up in complex ways with the West The last two decades have witnessed an extraordinary burst of energy and richness in Middle East women s studies and the contributors to this volume exemplify the vitality of this new thinking They take up issues of concern to historians and social thinkers working on the postcolonial world The essays challenge the assumptions of other major works on women and feminism in the Middle East by questioning among other things the familiar dichotomy in which women s domesticity is associated with tradition and modernity with their entry into the public sphere Indeed Remaking Women is a radical challenge to any easy equation of modernity with progress emancipation and the empowerment of women The contributors are Lila Abu Lughod Marilyn Booth Deniz Kandiyoti Khaled Fahmy Mervat Hatem Afsaneh Najmabadi Omnia Shakry and

Zohreh T Sullivan The book is introduced by the editor with a piece called Feminist Longings and Postcolonial Conditions which masterfully interfaces the critical studies of feminism and modernism with scholarship on South Asia and the Middle East

The Japanese "new Woman" Dina Lowy,2007 In The Japanese New Woman Dina Lowy focuses on this new female image as it was revealed discussed and debated in popular newspapers and magazines in the 1910s as well as on the lives of a specific group of women members of the feminist literary organization known as the Seitoshu

The Single Woman, Modernity, and Literary Culture Emma Sterry,2017-06-22 This book situates the single woman within the evolving landscape of modernity examining how she negotiated rural and urban worlds explored domestic and bohemian roles and traversed public and private spheres In the modern era the single woman was both celebrated and derided for refusing to conform to societal expectations regarding femininity and sexuality The different versions of single women presented in cultural narratives of this period including the old maid odd woman New Woman spinster and flapper were all sexually suspicious The single woman however was really an amorphous figure who defied straightforward categorization Emma Sterry explores depictions of such single women in transatlantic women s fiction of the 1920s to 1940s Including a diverse selection of renowned and forgotten writers such as Djuna Barnes Rosamond Lehmann Ngaio Marsh and Eliot Bliss this book argues that the single woman embodies the tensions between tradition and progress in both middlebrow and modernist literary culture

New Women, New Novels Ann L. Ardis,1990 Ardis identifies the New Woman novel as an important locus of change at the turn of the century a forum for the review of nineteenth century narrative conventions a forum for experimentation with new conceptualizations of sexuality and human character Back cover

Women and the Nation's Narrative Neloufer De Mel,2001 This book explores the development of nationalism in Sri Lanka during the past century particularly within the dominant Sinhala Buddhist and militant Tamil movements Tracing the ways women from diverse backgrounds have engaged with nationalism Neloufer de Mel argues that gender is crucial to an understanding of nationalism and vice versa Traversing both the colonial and postcolonial periods in Sri Lanka s history the author assesses a range of writers activists political figures and movements almost completely unknown in the West With her rigorous historically located analyses de Mel makes a persuasive case for the connections between figures like actress Annie Boteju and art historian and journalist Anil de Silva poetry whether written by Jean Arasanayagam or Tamil revolutionary women and political movements like the LTTE the JVP the Mother s Front and contemporary feminist organizations Evaluating the colonial period in light of the violence that animates Sri Lanka today de Mel proposes what Bruce Robbins has termed a lateral cosmopolitanism that will allow coalitions to form and to practice an oppositional politics of peace In the process she examines the gendered forms through which the nation and the state both come together and pull apart The breadth of topics examined here will make this work a valuable resource for South Asianists as well as for scholars in a wide range of fields who choose to consider the ways in which gender inflects their areas of research and teaching

of the modern woman in Japan before World War II      Woman and Chinese Modernity Rey Chow,1991-01 We live in an era in which the critique of the West has become not only possible but mandatory Where does this critique leave those peoples whose entry into culture is precisely because of the history of Western imperialism already Westernized This is the primary question Rey Chow addresses in Woman and Chinese Modernity Book cover      Becoming Modern Birgitte Søland,2021-05-11 In the decade following World War I nineteenth century womanhood came under attack not only from feminists but also from innumerable ordinary young women determined to create modern lives for themselves These young women cut their hair wore short skirts worked for wages sought entertainment outside the home and developed new attitudes toward domesticity sexuality and their bodies Historians have generally located the origins of this shift in women s lives in the upheavals of World War I Birgitte Søland s exquisite social and cultural history suggests however that they are to be found not in the war itself but in much broader social and economic changes Søland s engrossing chronicle draws on a rich variety of sources including popular media and medical works as well as archival records and oral histories to examine how notions of femininity and womanhood were reshaped in Denmark a small largely agrarian country that remained neutral during the war It explores changes in the female body and personality the forays of young women into the public sphere the redefinition of female respectability and new understandings of married life as evidenced in both cultural discourses and social practices Though specific in its focus the book raises broad comparative questions as it challenges common assumptions about the social and sexual upheavals that characterized the Western world in the postwar decade In a remarkably engaging fashion it shows why the end of World War I did not lead to the return of normal life in the 1920s

Women, Privacy and Modernity in Early Twentieth-Century British Writing Wendy Gan,2009-01-15 Wendy Gan uses privacy as a means to explore what modernity meant to British women of the early twentieth century      The Female Grotesque Mary Russo,2012-11-12 The grotesque the exaggerated the deformed the monstrous has been a well considered subject for students of comparative literature and art In a major addition to the literature of art cultural criticism and feminist studies Mary Russo re examines the grotesque in the light of gender exploring the works of Angela Carter David Cronenberg Bakhtin Kristeva Freud Žižek Mary Russo looks at the portrayal of the grotesque in Western culture and by combining the iconographic and the historical locates the role of the woman s body in the discourse of the grotesque      The Academy ,1905      Women Doing Intimacy Stevi Jackson,Petula Sik Ying Ho,2020-06-10 This book offers a comparative study of the lives of young adult women and their mothers in Hong Kong and Britain Set against the backdrop of debates regarding the consequences of late modern social change for family and intimate life the authors consider the challenges of exploring these issues across differing cultures Exploring the lives of two generations of women the book focuses on a range of topics including mother daughter relationships romantic sexual and marital relationship trajectories and the imagined futures of daughters Throughout it is argued that differences between Hong Kong and Britain are not attributable merely to local culture and tradition but are the consequence of wider social economic and political conditions through which cultural continuity and change are mediated Women Doing Intimacy will be of interest to students and scholars of family life and gender studies Academy and Literature Charles Edward Cutts Birch Appleton, Charles Edward Doble, James Sutherland Cotton, Charles Lewis Hind, William Teignmouth Shore, Alfred Bruce Douglas, Ellis Ashmead-Bartlett, Thomas William Hodgson Crosland, 1905
