The Cassandra Complex:

The Cassandra Complex Laurie Layton Schapira, 1988 Through Apollo's gift of prophecy Cassandra foretold the future Enraged by her rejection of him Apollo vowed no one would ever believe her This can be the tragedy of intuitive medial woman but this author shows how prophetic sensibilities can become the creative wellspring of a proud new life Dream interpretation and case studies

The Cassandra Complex Brian Stableford, 2010-06-05 This is a science fiction novel of enormous scope filled with wonders Set earlier in the same future history as Inherit the Earth Architects of Emortality and The Fountains of Youth The Cassandra Complex is the independent story of events crucial to the creation of the universe in which the others take place It is the twenty first century a world of rapid change and biotech threats and promises World War Three the biotech war is on the horizon and the world as we know it is going to end The fateful question is who is going to choose the kind of future that will follow and who gets to live in this new world to come Lisa Frieman a forensic researcher working for the police is attacked in her apartment Jordan Miller a distinguished scientist with whom Lisa once worked has disappeared with a secret discovery But what has he discovered that everyone wants And why do the thieves and their remote masters think that Lisa has any knowledge of the secret Miller guards Profound scientific extrapolation combined with riveting suspense make this at once a futuristic thriller and a cutting edge SF novel The Cassandra Complex expands the scope of Brian Stableford's growing future history and adds another major accomplishment to his long list of triumphant creations At the Publisher's request this title is being sold without Digital Rights Management Software DRM applied

The Post-Racial Limits of Memorialization Alfred Frankowski, 2015-11-09 The Post Racial Limits of Memorialization Toward a Political Sense of Mourning attempts to show how post racial discourse in general and post racial memory specifically operates as a context through which the memorialization of anti black violence and the production of new forms of this violence are connected Alfred Frankowski argues that aside from being symbolically meaningful the post racial context requires that memorialization of anti black violence in the past produces memory as a type of forgetting By challenging many of tenants of the critical turn in political philosophy and aesthetics he argues against a politics of reconciliation and for a political sense of mourning that amplifies the universality of violence embedded in our contemporary sensibility He argues for a sense of mourning that requires that we deepen our understanding of how remembrance and resistance to oppression remain linked and necessitates a fluid and active reconfiguration relative to the context in which this oppression exists
