The Profiler Bombshell:

Beyond Bombshells Jeffrey A. Brown, 2015-09-09 Beyond Bombshells analyzes the cultural importance of strong women in a variety of current media forms. Action heroines are now more popular in movies, comic books, television, and literature than they have ever been. Their spectacular presence represents shifting ideas about female agency, power, and sexuality. Beyond Bombshells explores how action heroines reveal and reconfigure perceptions about how and why women are capable of physically dominating roles in modern fiction, indicating the various strategies used to contain and/or exploit female violence. Focusing on a range of successful and controversial recent heroines in the mass media, including Katniss Everdeen from The Hunger Games books and movies, Lisbeth Salander from The Girl with the Dragon Tattoo novels and films, and Hit Girl from the Kick Ass movies and comic books, Jeffrey A. Brown argues that the role of action heroine reveals evolving beliefs about femininity. While women in action roles are still heavily sexualized and objectified, they also challenge preconceived myths about normal or culturally appropriate gender behavior. The ascribed sexuality of modern heroines remains Brown's consistent theme, particularly how objectification intersects with issues of racial stereotyping, romantic fantasies, images of violent adolescent and preadolescent girls, and neoliberal feminist revolutionary parables. Individual chapters study the gendered dynamics of torture in action films, the role of women in partnerships with male colleagues, young women as well as revolutionary leaders in dystopic societies, adolescent sexuality and romance in action narratives, the historical import of nonwhite heroines, and how modern African American, Asian, and Latina heroines both challenge and are restricted by longstanding racial stereotypes.

Rare Breed Connie Hall, 2010-05-01 She'd kissed goodbye a world of wealth and safety for dirt floors and man-eating animals. But beautiful American park ranger Wynne Sperling wasn't prepared for the real dangers of living in the African bush. Determined to protect the animals she loved, Wynne had to expose the man behind a deadly poaching ring, handsome eccentric Noah Hellstrom, a proclaimed conservationist and owner of a big money safari tour operation. With her ragtag team that included a young ranger, an elderly tribesman, her pet albino leopard, and a smart-mouthed Texan who might or might not be on her side, Wynne began a hunt that threatened to put her on top of the endangered species list.

Hot Pursuit Kathryn Jensen, 2005 NASA scientist Kate Foster is having a really, really bad day. Her billion-dollar satellite has been hijacked. The hijackers also kidnapped her right-hand man. And Kate may have a traitor on her team. Only Kate's quick thinking has kept the hijackers from using the satellite as a deadly weapon so far, but it's just a matter of days before they crack her simple code. Chasing around the globe with one of the world's top counterterrorist experts to retrieve the satellite may just shred her last nerve, but Kate's got to keep a cool head while they're in hot pursuit.
